Jazz concert postponed

The ASUO Cultural Forum-sponsored appearance of jazz musicians Mose Allison and Kenny Burrell will take place at 7:30 and 9 p.m. next Friday, not tonight as was incorrectly reported in Thursday's Emerald.

Preliminary hearing set

A former University student has been accused by authorities of fatally stabbing to death a young Eugene man Sunday. Conrado Gonzales, 22, is currently awaiting a preliminary hearing in Lane County District Court on a charge of murder.

Gonzales is accused of stabbing 21-year-old Joel Gonzalez of 957 Hilyard St. between 6 and 6:30 a.m. Sunday at 585 E. 19th Ave., according to Robert Naslund, Lane County District Attorney.

A Eugene funeral home said funeral services were held in hometown, Othello, Wash., for the victim, who died of a stab wound at Sacred Heart General Hospital early Monday morning.

DuShane to be honored

Donald M. DuShane, who has retired as dean of student services at the University, will be honored at a retirement dinner, Wednesday, January 19.

The dinner, at the Black Angus restaurant, will start with a no-host social hour at 6 p.m. Dinner will be at 7 p.m., with Mrs. Golda (Alan) Wickham, the University's retired dean of women, as mistress of ceremonies.

The price of the dinner is $4.25, which includes gratuities. Reservations with checks payable to Mrs. June Webb, should be sent to Mrs. Webb, Student Personnel Services, 259 Emerald Hall, by Monday, January 17.

Civil Service representatives to visit

Students interested in consulting with U.S. Civil Service representatives about getting a job with the service should sign up for the opportunity in the Student Placement Service in 246 Susan Campbell, says Karl Streiff, director of business placement.
