

Briefs

MEETINGS

Attention: Sp. Ed. Practicum students working with retarded and handicapped youth, and Big Brother-Sister-Friends to the Handicapped, and those interested, the first meeting, a special volunteer orientation presentation at Celeste Campbell Center, 155 High St. at 7 p.m. tonight.

There will be a Christian Science testimony meeting tonight at 7 p.m. in the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid. This meeting is open to all students and faculty. Following the open meeting will be an informal discussion for Christian Scientists at the University and L.C.C. on "communication".

Ms. Werdna Wyatt, Christian Science campus counselor, has office hours 3-5 p.m. in the EMU today. All enquiries welcome.

There will be a "meet the candidates" meeting 8 p.m. Friday night at Harris Hall, County Courthouse Square. County commissioner and county sheriff candidates have been asked to attend. The public is invited to attend and ask questions. For further information call Rudy, 688-6050.

M. C. Richards, potter, poet, and author of the book Centering will be at the University May 1-12 for a workshop, public lecture, and poetry reading. People interested in attending a daily afternoon workshop during that time should send a postcard to the Fine Arts office, rm. 164 Lawrence, c/o R. C. James.

Members of the University Faculty Club are invited to a special luncheon meeting at noon on Tuesday, April 11. Cost of the luncheon is $1. Reservation forms, sent to members by campus mail this week, are to be returned by Friday to Ernest Lund, associate professor of geology, president. No other luncheon service will be available at the club on Tuesday. Plans for future food service at the club will be discussed at the business meeting.

Beginning classes in Kundalini Yoga will be held at 6:30 on Monday and Wednesdays in the Wesley Center; Friday in the Friends Hall; and Thursday at 25 W. 7th. All classes begin at 6:30 p.m. Please bring padding and a donation of $1.

Intervarsity Christian Fellowship will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday night at the Young Life House on 18th and University. We will hear about the spring conference and next years officers.

Jerry Parker, land use planner on the OSPIRG professional staff, will meet with students and faculty interested in discussing OSPIRG's plans to work in the area of land use planning at 4 p.m. Thursday in 210 A Lawrence.

The University Chapter of the American Federation of Teachers invites all members, prospective members and friends to a no-host beer party at 9 p.m. Friday at the Bavarian restaurant (444 E. 3rd).

The ASUO Senate will meet Thursday at 7 p.m. in the EMU.

The Chinese Students Association will hold a spring term general assembly at 7:30 p.m., Thursday at Central Presbyterian Church. Transportation will be provided at the EMU turnaround. All Chinese students are welcome.

The Cosmopolitan Club is sponsoring an International Dinner this Sunday at 6 p.m. at the Central Presbyterian Church. Tickets are on sale at $2 each in 313 EMU or 319 EMU. Reservations can be made by calling 686-4387 or 686-3721. No tickets will be sold at the gate.

A limited number of openings remain in the 8:30 p.m. accelerated reading class at the Reading and Study Center, 265 Condon. Emphasis in the class is upon increasing reading speed and comprehension. For further information please call 686-3226. Fee for the non credit class is $7.50.

Biology tutors are needed for the Reading and Study Skills Center. Three to six hours of credit are given for six to 12 hours of work. Please call 686-3226 for further information.

Mini language classes are beginning this week. French will be held at 7 p.m. tonight in room 201 Condon. Greek will have its first meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at 1261 Alder St., no. 9. Japanese classes will begin Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in room 201 Condon.

MISC.

S. Y. Ch'en, professor of physics, will talk on his recent one month visit to Mainland China at 8 p.m. Friday, in 150 Science. The lecture is sponsored by the department of physics.

"Recent results in X-ray astronomy" will be the physics colloquium topic for professor Robert Kraft of the Lick Observatory, University of California at Santa Cruz. The lecture will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in 16 Science. Coffee and doughnuts will be served in the John Binney Lounge at 3:15 p.m.

ASUO Senators Roger Vavrosky and Roger Wyatt will hold office hours on Thursday from 1:30 to 3 p.m. in 315 EMU.

There will be rugby training Thursday afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

The workshop on "Introduction to Marxism-Leninism, Mao Tse-Tung thought" will be offered this term. The class meets at 3:30-5:20 p.m. Thursday at 369 Condon. Everyone is welcome.

A married couple group counseling session will be held Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. in the De Busk Center. For information and application call 342-3091 or 343-5178.

The Intervarsity Christian Fellowship is sponsoring a retreat April 7-9 at Cannon Beach. If interested, call 344-9467 today.

The Charity Fund Committee of the Chinese Students Association is holding a charity party this Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Wesley Foundation. Tickets are $1 each, and will be available from Wong Yiu Pong, 686-5347 and Michael Mak, 686-6669.

The Creative Writing Program and Northwest Poetry Circuit is sponsoring a reading given by poet John Woods on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the EMU.

Bothered by excessive tension or anxiety while studying or taking tests? A program designed to help students reduce such tension and anxiety will begin April 11 at the Counseling Center, Susan Campbell Hall. For further information check with the receptionist at room 150, Susan Campbell Hall.

Sick of Oregon? If you are an Oregon resident, you can go to the University of Alabama, University of Idaho, Ohio University or University of Nevada at Reno and pay in-state tuition. Contact Gail in 319 EMU or call 686-3721 for information.

The ASUO Child Care and Development Center is offering night child care at the rate of $15 a night for the entire term per child. Service is from 5:45 p.m. to midnight. Friday and Saturday night drop-in service is available from 6 p.m. to 2 a.m. for a flat fee of $2.50 each night. Sessions begin April 7. For details call the CCDC center at 686-4384.

Bothered by excessive tension or anxiety while studying or taking tests? A program designed to help students reduce such tension and anxiety will begin April 11 at the Counseling Center, Susan Campbell Hall. For further information check with the receptionist at 150 Susan Campbell Hall. Preference will be given to those who sign up first.

Those interested in the organization of the Model Democratic Convention this spring can contact the Political Science Department for an interview. Three credits will be offered in PS 407, but plan on more than 3 hours of work—much more. Call x 4864 by Friday if you are interested.

Positions for next year's rally squad are now available at the Athletic Department and 301 EMU. Applications are due back April 14 by 5 p.m. Tryouts will be held April 17, 18 and 19.

The Patsy Mink Campaign needs a typewriter. If you have one that you would lend out, please call the Mink For President Committee at 344-1615.

Those who are interested in Chinese and Japanese program now under review of HPUP may meet for a Chinese table Friday in the EMU.

Day Care openings currently at the University Child Care Development Center. Apply at 1511 Moss St. Children accepted 7 months to six years.

MISC.

The Third Annual Table Tennis Tournament sponsored by the Cosmopolitan Club is scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m. in the EMU basement. Entry is open to all interested students of the University. Please sign up in room 313 EMU if you would like to participate. A trophy and prize will be presented to the winner and the runners-up at the International Banquette on April 22.

Teacher Assistants are needed by the ASUO Child Care and Development Center particularly during evening hours. ESCAPE credit is available and enrollment information can be obtained from the ESCAPE office by calling 343-0074. Some Psychology credit is available and can be arranged by calling 343-1782 evenings. Foreign students are particularly urged to inquire.

There is a need for people in the University and Lane Community College area who are willing to provide day care in their homes for Children in Child Care Inc. Family Day Care Program. People providing such care will be paid for their services. For further information call Paul Roeger, 747-4501 ext 208.

The department of psychology will sponsor a colloquium lecture by Amos Tversky of the Hebrew University, Jerusalem and a visiting research associate, Oregon Research Institute, at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, April 10 in 244 Commonwealth. The subject will be "Judgement under Uncertainty." Persons are asked to call 686-4921 before attending in case of a last minute cancellation.

Dr. Ian Gibson of Bedford College, University of London, will speak on the subject "Trace element data bearing on the origin of salic rocks from the East African Rift," at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 11, in 307 Science Annex B (Volcanology) at the geology department Lunchbag Seminar.

Umpires for women's and co-ed softball intramurals are needed. Must have some knowledge of game. Will pay $1.60 per game. Call X3389 for more information.

The Chinese Students Association is going to hold the spring term general assembly tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Central Presbyterian Church. Transportation will be provided at the turn around of EMU in front of the post office at 7:15 p.m. All Chinese students are welcome.

The charity fund committee of the C.S.A. is sponsoring a charity gathering 7 p.m. Saturday at the Wesley Foundation (behind the Co-op bookstore). There will be games, dancing and refreshment. Tickets are still available at $1 each. Please give us your support.

Bothered by excessive tension or anxiety while studying or taking tests? A program designed to help students reduce such tension and anxiety will begin April 11 at the Counseling Center, Susan Campbell Hall. For further information check with the receptionist at Room 150, Susan Campbell Hall. Preference will be given to those who sign up first.

Those interested in the organization of Model Democratic Convention this spring can contact the Political Science Department for an interview. Three credits will be offered in PS 407 for the steering committee. Call X4891 by Friday to sign up for an interview.

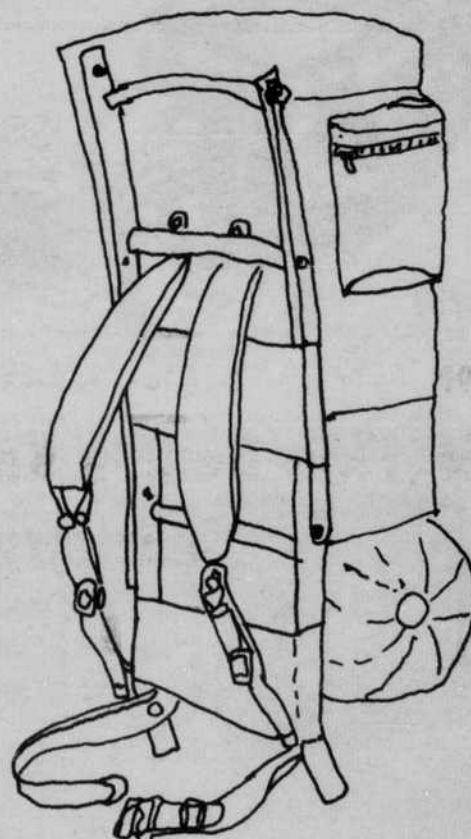

The mini language classes are having their first meetings this week to determine regular meeting hours and places. Interested students should attend the first sessions before the classes close. The meetings for this week are: Japanese, Thursday in 201 Condon; and Greek, Thursday at 1261 Alder St. No. 9.

Members of Alpha Delta Rl sorority will distribute collection bags for good will items on every dorm floor tonight. Any unwanted articles of clothing, shoes, records, sports equipment, etc., should be placed in these bags prior to collection April 12.

The University Counseling Center will sponsor a series of group meetings spring term for people in the University community age 30 and over. This group will meet from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursdays at the Counseling Center. The format will include reality problems as well as interaction, communication skill. Phone ext. 3227 or stop by at 150 Susan Campbell.

FRAME PACKS $30-$60

Rentals from $1<sup>00</sup> per wknd.

Outdoor Resource Center

Rm. 21 EMU x3089

Sale

ALL STEREO TREASURY L.P.S

Buy one $1.99 ea

Buy two $1.89 ea

Buy three (or more) $1.79 ea

Multiple sets priced by the Disc.

LONDON ffrr
STEREO Treasury SERIES

Viscount records

Valley River Center

342-7735

Sundays - 12 to 5 -

"Drawings for albums" SHA-NA-NA Night "Free pretzels"

at the

Black Forest on Willamette

A Night of Golden Oldies

from the '50s and '60s...

with KASH DJ, Jack Allen

Saturday night, April 8 7:30 'til 12:45