

Free speed reading lesson.

You'll increase your reading speed on the spot!

HERE'S A GREAT OPPORTUNITY: Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics offers you a free glimpse of what it is like to be able to read and study much faster. At our free introductory lesson you will actually participate in techniques that will improve your reading and study speed on-the-spot. See what is holding back your reading rate and see how you can easily read much faster.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN: At our introductory lesson you will see that Reading Dynamics is a comprehensive reading improvement program. You'll learn that our students not only read faster but also comprehend more, and remember better. You'll learn how our study method can cut study time in half. In short you will have an opportunity to see what we teach and how we teach it.

OTHERS HAVE DONE IT—SO CAN YOU: Seeing the instant results of your progress at the introductory lesson will help you understand why our average graduate increases his reading speed 4.7 times with improved comprehension. You'll see why over 500,000 people have improved their reading skills through the Reading Dynamics techniques. You'll understand why Reading Dynamics has been taught at the White House to staff members of Presidents Kennedy and Nixon.

COME SEE FOR YOURSELF: We want you to decide for yourself the value of becoming a rapid reader through the use of the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics techniques. Plan now to attend a free introductory lesson; they are informal and last about an hour. Come as you are, even bring a friend.

Come to your free lesson.

Eugene Hotel

222 E. Broadway

Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

 Evelyn Wood
Reading Dynamics Institute

On Campus

Friday last day to add courses

Friday is the last day to add courses for Spring Term. It is also the last day for former students to drop courses without having the withdrawal noted on their records. First term new students may drop courses through Friday, April 28, without the courses being recorded.

After the dates listed above, courses may be dropped through Friday, May 19, however, a "W" will be recorded.

OSPIRG refunds available

Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group (OSPIRG) refunds are available through Friday at the EMU Main Desk. Students need to show their yellow student ID cards to get the one dollar refund.

An OSPIRG worker said that they had given about 700 refunds by 5 p.m. Wednesday. Last term 1145 students asked for refunds during the five-day refund period.

Gay People to present statement

A statement by the Gay People's Alliance will be read at a Student Conduct Committee meeting at 1:30 p.m. this afternoon in EMU. The group is requesting that a clause be put into the proposed University Code of Conduct which will bar discrimination against homosexuals. The University Code, which would broaden the present Student Conduct system to include jurisdiction over both student and faculty members, will be presented before the Faculty Senate at their April 26 meeting.

Print exhibition to be held in EMU

A special one-day presentation of original lithograph, intaglio, serigraph and woodcut prints will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. today in the EMU.

The public is invited to view this unique collection of the Lakeside Studio for Lakeside, Michigan and to meet their representative, Mr. Robin Blomquist, who will be happy to answer historical and technical questions. The presentation is sponsored by the EMU.

Lecture on Barthelme, Barth slated

"Freaked-Out Fiction" is the title of a lecture-commentary on contemporary trends in American writing to be presented by George Wickes, professor of English at the University.

The program will be at 4 p.m. today in 189 Prince Lucien Campbell Hall.

The talk will center on the recent writings of Donald Barthelme, author of Unspeakable Practices, Unnatural Acts, and John Barth, author of Lost in the Funhouse.

Mas'ud Zavarzadeh, acting assistant professor of English, who specializes in contemporary literature, will add his views to the presentation.

The lecture is free and open to the public.

Briefs

MISC.

Political Science majors who have applied for a degree in June are reminded to visit the department this week in order to review requirements with an advisor. Bring an unofficial transcript for review.

The Board of Directors of the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Company will be interviewing candidates for the position of editor today. If there are specific or general questions which you think important for the Board to ask the candidates you may communicate them to David Sonnenfeld, Emerald Board Member, at 107A Commonwealth Hall, 686-3229.

There will be a table in front of the EMU this week with petitions on landlord-tenant relations, gas tax revenues, highway construction and nuclear power development. Registered voters are invited to stop, read and sign them. Anyone interested in passing any of these petitions can contact the Survival Center, x 4356.

If you see the urgency of more than token change, join the Patsy Mink Campaign. Come to 3204 Fillmore Street or call 344-1615 and volunteer your help (or any other kind of contribution.)

HILLEL counselor, Rabbi Louis Neimand, is at 1414 Kincaid Thursday nights 7:30 to 9. Drop in or call for an appointment—342-4303.

Applications are available for a non-voting student position on the Finance Committee of the State Board and two student positions on an Ad Hoc Committee on Student Housing Policy. Apply for these positions in the IUS Office, 303 EMU, or call 686-4367.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and once weekly during summer session by the Emerald Board of Directors at the University of Oregon.

Second-class postage paid at Eugene Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates:
(1.) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on

Looking for a study program in Tokyo? The University has one. Come to EMU tonight at 8 p.m. for slides and answers to your questions.

The workshop in "Introduction to Marxism-Leninism, Mao Tse-Tung thought" will be offered this term. The class meets at 3:30-5:20 p.m. today at 369 Condon. Everyone is welcome.

The latest issue of "The Classified" (issue no. 8) is now out. Staff members distributing this staff paper should pick up the copies they need in 308 EMU. Any staff members wishing to help with distribution should call Cheryl Wainer, ASUO secretary, at ext. 3724, or 344-4867.

There will be a degree recital in piano by Betty Woo 8 p.m. tonight in the School of Music recital hall. No admission will be charged.

The Study Skills Center needs two physical science tutors, two international law tutors, and one tutor for Philosophy 224. Tutors may receive academic credit for their work with students. Interested persons should call ext. 3226, or visit the Study Skills Center, 265 Condon.

Need writing help? The Study Skills Center has competent tutors who will give assistance at no charge to you. Call ext. 3226, or see them in room 265 Condon.

The Psychology Clinic is offering a program to help college men increase their comfort and skill in dating situations. The program is individually oriented and is not a group program. Interested persons can obtain further information or sign up by calling ext. 4954.

annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUG and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is approximately $2.00 per year.

(11.) Special subscriptions for persons not included in category (1.) are available at a rate of $10 per year, $9.00 per academic year and $3.50 per term.

Art Bushnell
Marcus Wright
Editor
Business Manager