Policy hearing date in error

An open hearing will be held for persons wishing to comment upon the proposed student records policy for the University on Friday, April 28, from 11 to 12 p.m. in 101 EMU.

The Emerald incorrectly reported Tuesday that the hearing would be held this Friday.

Copies of the text of the proposed policy are available for examination in 258 Emerald Hall, 110 Johnson Hall, and the office of each academic dean.

The Emerald printed the full text of the proposed policy March 8.

Luau set for Saturday

Hui O Kamaaina of the University will hold a luau at 6:30 p.m. this Saturday at McArthur Court. Admission is $3.50 for dinner and entertainment, $1.50 for entertainment only. Children eight years old or younger are free. Tickets are available at the Bronson Travel Bureau and the EMU.

Jones to speak at CSPA

Johnathan West, an appointed member of District 4J School Board seeking election to a full four year term, was scheduled to speak at the C.S.P.A. Conversation this Thursday noon in the EMU. Because of a conflict, West will not appear.

Jay Jones, a co-worker and colleague of West's, will speak in his place.

The topic for discussion will be West's thoughts and views of the responsibilities of a school board member as part of a team.

Littman clarifies task force vote

Richard Littman, University vice provost and chairman of the Affirmative Action Task Force, said Wednesday that he did not vote in the task force's action to give priority to minority candidates for the interim and permanent directorship of the Office for Affirmative Action.

The Emerald reported Wednesday that Littman abstained from voting in Tuesday's task force action.

Littman said Wednesday that he did not abstain, explaining that he didn't vote because of his role as chairman.

The task force voted 3-2 to give priority to minority candidates.

Community

Management seminar scheduled

The Administrative Management Society will hold a seminar on "Management & Communication Process" from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. today in the Eugene Hotel.

The session will be for executives, managers and supervisors who are concerned with employee productivity and their own effectiveness in controlling costs and improving profits.

Registration fee will be $10 for students, $15 for AMS members, and $20 for all other persons.

International dinner to be held

The annual International Dinner for foreign students, friendship families and others interested will be held at 6 p.m. this Saturday, in the cafeteria of South Eugene High School on east 19th Avenue.

Each family is asked to bring a casserole or main dish sufficient to serve 12 persons and a salad or dessert. Many families enjoy bringing a dish distinctive of some foreign country.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Art Litchman at the Foreign Student Office, 686-3207.

Saturday last day to register to vote

Persons wishing to vote in the May 23 primary, must be registered by Saturday, Apr. 22.

Polling places in the campus area include: EMU Terrace—Wednesday through Saturday; Co-op Bookstore—Thursday and Friday; dormitory dining halls—Wednesday through Friday; and, the downtown Eugene Mall—Saturday.

For further information, contact Laura Wolfe, campus registration coordinator, at 342-4650.
