

SOME GRAD SCHOOLS ARE MORE CHALLENGING THAN OTHERS.

It's graduation day and there you stand... diploma in hand and future in doubt. You could go on to graduate school. Or you could look for a job in today's ever-tightening job market. Or, you could put your education to work immediately by applying for the Air Force's Officer Training School program.

Upon qualification, you'll find yourself beginning 12 weeks of specialized study designed to prepare you for the challenge and responsibilities of an officer's commission. And, give you the chance to go on to flight school to earn those famous silver wings as an Air Force pilot or navigator.

OTS is your chance to break away from the crowd and be recognized. For all the facts, mail in the coupon. Or, call 800-631-1972 toll free.*

Remember, with an Air Force future, the sky's no limit. * In New Jersey call 800-962-2803.

POSTER" OF ONE OF THE CANDIDATES!

3. Congratulations! You have created a genuine full color portrait of someone you know and love. Maybe. If he or she is not your favorite presidential candidate, have patience. You'll see your favorite soon in the Flair Election Collection! (Don't forget to ask about Flair's running mate, the Flair Hot Liner.)

On Campus

Environmental discussion slated

Environmental planning and enforcement of environmental law will be discussed by Judge William Beckett, candidate for Circuit Court Judge District two, position six, and Al King, candidate for the state legislature, District 41, at noon today in the Dad's Room of the EMU.

Beckett will be talking on the legal aspects of environmental law. King, a University student, will be discussing environmental planning.

Outdoor Club position open

Applications are being accepted this week for the position of Outdoor Club Assistant Controller in room 23 EMU. The person would have to help coordinate "Oregon Outdoor '72." Applicants should expect to share instructional sessions in basic wilderness activities, and share overall responsibility for the Summer Outdoor Program, with the organizational and administrative aspects.

Qualifications are having an interest in the "Oregon Outdoor '72" project, and a willingness to begin work in May. The salary is $900 and will go from July 1-October 1, 1972. Applicants should be attending Spring quarter or planning to attend summer school.

The deadline is at noon Friday. Interviews will be Friday at 4 p.m. in the Outdoor Program office, 23 EMU.

Hearings on ASUO resources planned

The ASUO Governing Committee's sub-committee on Tentative Guidelines for Official Participation in ASUO Politics will hold hearings today and Tuesday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., rm. 315 EMU.

Tonight the committee will be discussing the use of ASUO resources in ASUO elections. Tuesday night official endorsements on the part of ASUO agencies and officials will be discussed.

Dog bite information requested

A University student was bitten by a dog at noon Thursday at 17th and Agate.

The student was jogging when the dog bit him. The dog was described as possibly a black labrador. If the animal is not found, the student will have to undergo a long and painful series of anti-rabies shots.

Anyone with information about the dog is asked to contact Rick at 686-5351.

Environmentalist to speak

Gladys O'Donnell, the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) assistant director for public affairs for Volunteer Programs, will address interested environmentalists tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Dad's Room.

O'Donnell will discuss the role of voluntary organizations in cleaning up the environment. She will explain the EPA's new program and describe what steps individuals can take to clean up the environment. There will be a question and answer period following the talk which is sponsored by OSPIRG. Admission is free.

Reapportionment hearing tonight

The ASUO Senate is holding a hearing on the six proposed senate reapportionment plans tonight at 7 p.m. in rm. 112 EMU. Students will be asked to vote for the plan they prefer in the ASUO general election Wednesday and Thursday. The hearing is open to all interested students.

Parks department activities set

Eugene now has the backing of a locally sponsored bicycle racing team through the cooperative efforts of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Eugene and the Emerald Valley Cycling Club. Details of organizing a racing team have yet to be finalized, but the team will be open to all members of the Emerald Valley Cycling Club.

Any women interested in entering a team in the summer slow pitch softball league, sponsored by Eugene Parks and Recreation Department, should send a representative to attend an organizational meeting at 7 p.m. May 4 in the McNutt Room of the Eugene City Hall. Details of scheduling, cost and time for the league which will play from June through August will be discussed.

All women over 18 are eligible. For information contact Beverly Ivers at the parks and recreation department office in the City Hall, 342-5221.

Echo Hollow Pool, 1665 Echo Hollow Rd., will be closed for spring cleaning all day Thursday and Friday. The pool will open Saturday and lessons will resume on Monday.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and once weekly during summer session by the Emerald Board of Directors at the University of Oregon.

Second-class postage paid at Eugene Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates:
(1.) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUO and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is approximately $2.00 per year.

(11.) Special subscriptions for persons not included in category (1.) are available at a rate of $10 per year, $9.00 per academic year and $3.50 per term.
