

Ducks to host Grand Junction

Steve Greenough, the lefthander who turned down a professional contract to return to Oregon next year, will more than likely start for the Eugene Ducks Thursday when they host Grand Junction, Colorado.

The game is at Civic Stadium and starts at 6 p.m. Greenough, 1-1 on the year, was drafted by the Giants but chose instead to play for Mel Krause and the Ducks one more season.

The summer Ducks are 5-2 on the year after an easy 8-2 decision over Myrmo at Sheldon High School Monday night.

Eugene held an 8-0 lead before the other semi-pro squad pushed across two runs in the ninth.

Mike Shoup coasted through the first five innings and picked up his first victory of the season against no defeats.

Reliever Randy Lanning came on to mop up for Shoup in the sixth. By then the Ducks had a big lead, thanks to a key bases-loaded double by Don Reynolds in the fourth inning.

Eugene rallied for four runs in the frame to tuck the game away.

Over the weekend the Ducks test Corvallis and McMinnville for the first time in Inter-state League play.

"Hollywood" Bob Claydon stretches, but the throw never came Monday night as this Myrmo runner made it safely to first. The Eugene Ducks easily won the game, pushing their season record to 5-2. Thursday night the team plays against Grand Junction, Colorado, beginning at 6 p.m. in Civic Stadium. The game is a preliminary to the Emeralds' Pacific Coast League contest with Portland.

Sports Briefs

The Rose Festival Track and Field meet begins at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at Mt. Hood Community College. Ducks Al Hearvey, Bob Martin, Tinker Hatfield, and Steve Prefontaine head the list of Oregon athletes who will compete.

Hearvey, fresh off a third-place finish in the AAU 200 meter championship, joins Martin in the Rose Festival sprint events.

Ivory Harris is entered in the high hurdles and Hatfield will be in his first competition in a month when he joins the pole vault field.

World class long jumper Arnie Robinson, with a season best of 26-8 1/4, heads the national entrants.

In the distances Oklahoma State's John Halberstadt will be running the 5,000. It was Halberstadt who put on a fantastic finishing kick in winning the 10,000 meters in the NCAA meet.

Pre will run in a rare 3,000 meter race, aiming for the American record of 7:54.2.

Four top prep track and field athletes have joined the Bill Bowerman fold.

And one super-prepper: Craig Brigham. Brigham, a 6-2, 196-pound South Eugene High product, is the national prep record holder in the decathlon and led the Axemen to their second straight state AAA title with 36 individual points.

Others who have signed Oregon letters of intent were Gary Barger, Stan Whigham, John Woodman and Judd Eddy.

Barger, St. Helens, won the state AAA mile in 4:11.1 and placed second in the 880

(1:54.1). Barger went to the same school as Todd Lathers.

Whigham and Woodman are both hurdlers. Whigham, from Palmdale High in Litterock, Cal., has been timed in 13.9 and 18.9 in the hurdles and Woodman's best in the highs is 13.9.

Eddy is a 15-6 pole vaulter from Ferris High in Spokane.

Mel Krause's stock went up a notch with the announcement that Brian Shandera had signed a Duck letter of intent.

Shandera, 6-1 and 165, is from Portland's Sunset High and pitched in the Oregon High School all-star series. In that series he rolled up 11 strikeouts in five innings.

He was all-Metro in the Portland area, and recorded 21 strikeouts in one game as a sophomore.

Golf coach Jack Adler has resigned as Duck golf coach, but his recruitment program continues to pay off.

Adler, who will coach his last match when the Oregon squad competes in the NCAA Championships in Coral Gables, Fla., this week, has recruited the Oregon State champ—Larry Jacobsen—and a state champion from Idaho, Dan McGinnis, from Idaho Falls.

Earlier it was announced that Washington state champ Steve Prugh, from Ferris High in Spokane, had signed an Oregon letter of intent.
