

Local minister to be featured on broadcast

Rev. Don Gall, a Eugenean who was arrested recently in Washington D.C. for anti-war activity, will be featured in a televised broadcast this weekend. The Presbyterian minister will be speaking at 11:15 p.m., Sunday, on Channel 9 (KEZI). The broadcast is being sponsored by the Eugene chapter of Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC).

Gall traveled to Washington in mid-May as part of a national CALC lobbying effort regarding the Church-Case amendment, a bill to cut off funds for the Indochina war.

The day the group arrived the bill was effectively killed in the Senate by passage of a rider, so the ministers and laymen decided to demonstrate to make their presence known.

Gall and 132 others, including Dr. Benjamin Spock and Yale chaplain William Sloan Coffin, were arrested when they remained in the Rotunda past closing time, conducting a worship service. Gall chose to spend two days in jail rather than pay the $25 fine for the offense.

Prof receives award for article

Willis Greer, assistant professor of accounting at the University received the Lybrand Silver Medal from the National Assn. of Accountants (NAA), at a recent conference of that organization in Philadelphia. Greer's work placed second in competition with more than 1,000 manuscripts. His article "Better Motivation for Time-Constrained Sequential Production Process" won the award. It will be published in August's "Management Accounting," the official publication of NAA.

Record policy hearing set

A public hearing on the proposed Student Record Policy of the University will be held from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. next Thursday, in the Johnson Hall Conference Room.

The proposed rules define "personal" records, describe procedures under which records are established and retained, designate certain records as confidential, and describe the conditions under which access to records will be restricted.

Copies of the proposed Student Record Policy are on file and open to public inspection at the following locations: Office of Gerald Bogen, vice president for student services (110 Johnson); Office of Robert Bowlin, dean of student personnel services (258 Emerald); Office of David Frohnmayer, assistant to the President (319 Law School Building); Bill Wyatt, ASUO President, (308 EMU); and Cliff Zukin, ASUO Senate President (311 EMU).

Wyatt to speak before interim committee

ASUO President Bill Wyatt will speak at Friday's meeting of the Interim Education Committee in Salem. Wyatt's topic will be "The Goals of Education."

Also appearing before the committee will be Roy Lieuellen, chancellor of the state system of higher education; Floyd Stearns, chairman of the Educational Coordinating Council; and Dale Parnell, superintendent of public instruction.

Council agrees to hearing on closure

The Eugene City Council agreed Wednesday to call for a public hearing for August 14 on a Eugene Planning Commission request to close a portion of the alley north of 11th Street between Pearl and High Streets. The closure would be necessary for construction of the proposed Benjamin Franklin Savings and Loan building.

The council action came at its regular weekly Committee-of-the-Whole meeting in the Eugene Hotel.

Demoforum conference scheduled

Demoforum '72 has been scheduled for July 28-30 at Kah-Nee-Tah Lodge near Warm Springs in Central Oregon.

The fifth annual conference is expected to draw more than 300 persons this year to a weekend of discussions on issues facing Oregonians and looking at ways of financing solutions.

Demoforum '72 is a state-wide group of progressive Democrats, open to anyone, which meets annually. It pursued a lobbying program at the 1971 legislature.

More than 250 persons participated in Demoforum '71.
