Theater, recreation nearby

Theater will continue this fall in Ashland after the close of the summer Shakespearean Festival.

Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize-winning "Our Town" will be presented at 8 p.m. every Friday and Saturday in November. The play is a genuinely poignant portrayal of small town life in New England at the turn of the century.

There will be $5, $4, and $3 tickets with a $2 "student rush." All unsold tickets just prior to showtime will be sold to students with ID. The same applies to senior citizens over 65.

Theater will begin in the spring with "Our Town," alternating with Shakespeare's "Othello," Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," and Ben Jonson's "The Alchemist."

The 1973 Summer Season will present Shakespeare's "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "As You Like It," "Othello," and "Henry The Fifth;" August Strindberg's "The Dance of Death," and "The Alchemist."

Prices for the spring and summer will be the same as in November except for Friday and Saturday evening admissions of $6, $4.50, and $3. The $2 rushes hold all year.
