dissertation and just plain old homework emerged speedily in crisp duplication. Pluid's also designs and prints brochures, announcements and brochures in any color you desire. Anybody for chartreuse on black.

What can you say about a cleaners? That it is clean? That it is fast? That it is reasonable? That it can handle almost anything? That special care is taken with every item? That we would be in dire straights without them? That they are Siegmund's cleaners in the Campus Village?

Now Duffy's on the corner of Alder has only been around for a few months really. But, what can you say, the place is a household word. Simply, the most popular tavern in Eugene and all those people can't be wrong. A rustic bare wood interior gives the place, despite its size, a cozy atmosphere. The table areas set at different levels breakup the mainroom into congenial gatherings. The fireplace is stunning. The pool tables click from opening to closing.

quality, and the service is the speediest.

Pizan's features a deli-type service. You can get about 20 different kinds of cold cut sandwiches or you can get them hot. Potato salad is really fine. The store is open to all hours of the night and that is an aspect not too common in this neighborhood. The individual booth arrangement gives the place an airy feeling yet breaks up the room for a cozy privacy. You might even be able to get a peanut butter and jelly sandwich at Pizan's. Think about Peanut Butter and jelly for a while.

Now let's skip across Sacred Heart Hospital's parking lot and watch out for the shrubs.

On the corner of 13th and Hilyard is none other than the Dairy Queen. More than just a place to get an ice cream cone, the Dairy Queen is an American institution. More than just the place to get delicious thick hamburgers, the Dairy Queen is where all young boys and girls went together about the time they were discovering they were young boys and girls together. More than just a place to get the finest shakes and malts and so many sundaes who can count them any more, the Dairy Queen was with us back in the days when we were sure we all liked each other. The Dairy Queen still is. Like each other at the Dairy Queen?

Coming back toward campus we run into the Great Northwest Art supply. People there take pride in making available the best in basic for the futures in coming masterpieces, or maybe just for a little dabbling. Everything from parchment paper to matte boards to Bellini paints to balsa wood and palette knives. Maybe even some advice when you're not sure what you want. But, for the moment, figure you do—you'll find it at Great Northwest Art Supply.

The Excelsior Cafe presents sidewalk dining in the French style with perfect touches of local color. The food is the best there is, and for its quality, moderately priced. A good place to gather, relax and enjoy the company of good friends. The people are mellow and the aura gentle.

Yankee Clipper right across the hall from the Excelsior features decor with Asian touch. Rugs and incenses to add the exotic to any surrounding. Colorful prints to add life to any body. Decorations to add the richness of Eastern philosophy and ways to any habitat Import is the style, and seems more than important, seems right.

Seven-Eleven market on the corner of Alder and 13th Ave. has quick service marketing for those in a hurry or just looking for convenience. Open all night, it is very handy. Handy too, in that it has just about everything from band-aids to the late night munchy delights. How about a six-pack of beer, or the real thing—Coke—or maybe some Un-Cola if you're not a teen angel.
