

Arlo Guthrie was here last fall.

Photo by Kent Smith

Guide . . .

(Continued from Page 14)

shown on Sunday night, for an average cost of $1 this fall. Some of the movies include, "MASH," "Klute," "Little Big Man," and "The World of Buckminster Fuller," among others.

Eugene has eight indoor movie theatres which will be presenting various films this fall. Located within walking distance on campus is the Mayflower theatre on 11th Avenue. Downtown on the Mall are the National and the McDonald theatres. Also downtown, on Willamette is the Heilig theatre. The Oakway Cinema is located in the Oakway Mall off Coburg Road. Out at Valley River Shopping Center is the Valley River Twin Cinema, with two theatres. And in Springfield, on Main Street is the Fine Arts theatre. Eugene also offers a wide variety of drive-in theatres.

If you are simply looking for a place to eat on campus, the west end of campus offers a variety of restaurants and two bars. The Excelsior Cafe, reminiscent of a Parisian outdoor sidewalk cafe, is located on 13th Avenue between Alder and Hilyard. The New World Coffee House, serving teas, cold drinks, soups and sandwiches is located on Alder between 13th and 12th.

That same block includes Pizan's, a sandwich house, and the Bamboo Pavilion, a Chinese delicatessen. Around the corner on 13th between Alder and Kincaid are Duffy's and Ben's Pour House, two establishments serving beer, wine and sandwiches for those over 21.

In the same block are The Bull Shed, another sandwich place and The Oak Pit, a cafeteria style restaurant. Down 13th a little way is the Eggsnatchur, a natural foods restaurant.

The University Music School has planned a fall season of concerts, some free of admission, as follows:

Tuesday, October 3, Steven Price, Viola. Guest Recital. 8 p.m.

Tuesday, October 24, Eugene Symphony with guest pianist. 8 p.m.

Wednesday, October 25, Eugene Symphony with guest pianist. 8 p.m.

Monday, October 30, Smetana. Chamber Concert Series. 8 p.m.

Tuesday, October 31, EUMA Concert. 8 p.m.

Wednesday, November 1 or Thursday, November 2, Deloris Borgir, Guest Faculty Pianist. 8 p.m.

Monday, November 6, Wind Symposium. Robert Vagner, director. 8 p.m.

Thursday, November 9, University Trio. 8 p.m.

Friday, November 10, Wind Symposium. Robert Vagner, director. Noon.

Monday, November 13, Robert Perkins, Degree Recital. 8:30 p.m.

Wednesday, November 15, Wind Symposium. Robert Vagner, director. 8 p.m.

Thursday, November 16, Wind Symposium. Robert Vagner, director. 8 p.m.

Friday, November 17, Wind Symposium. Robert Vagner, director. Noon.

Sunday, November 19, Franz Peter Goebels, Pianist. Chamber Concert Series. 8 p.m.

Tuesday, November 21, Joanna Richner, Degree Recital. 8 p.m.

Tuesday, November 28, Eugene Symphony. Lawrence Maves, conductor. 8 p.m.

Wednesday, November 29, Eugene Symphony. Lawrence Maves, conductor. 8 p.m.

Wednesday, November 29, Richard Yost, Trumpet Degree Recital. 12:30 p.m.

Thursday, November 30, Joyce Cameron, Doctoral Degree Recital—Piano. 8 p.m.

Tuesday, December 5, EUMA Concert. 8 p.m.

Wednesday, December 6, University Singers and Chorale. H. Royce Saltzman, director. 8 p.m.

And, if you are interested in participating in an orchestra yourself, but aren't expert at it, the Eugene Community Orchestra is starting a new season and opening its doors to adult musicians of all ages. None of the orchestra members are professionals, they are just people who devote Tuesday nights to playing as part of an orchestra for fun and recreation. No auditions and no dues are required. The time for rehearsal is Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The place is the rear of Jefferson Junior High school bandroom. For further information call William Tweedie at 345-0464.

Before the summer passes into winter, you also might want to do a little recreating at some of the water, boat and swim areas around Eugene. Fern Ridge, located west of Eugene, has facilities for boating, swimming, sailing, waterskiing and picnicking. Fall Creek reservoir is located to the east and Cottage Grove Reservoir to the south. The Oregon coast is only an hour from Eugene and Honeyman Park, just south of Florence, offers sand dunes to play on.

Begins tonight on cable-12

Counter culture talk show on TV

Cable 12 TV is offering a talk show of interest to University students beginning tonight (Sept. 21) from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The show, organized by Jeff Spolan, will continue over a period of eight weeks. The format will include an announcer, Spolan, and local talent, artists, craftsmen, musicians and music, and discussions among community people.

Some people Spolan said he would like to have on the show are the Vietnam Vets against the War, M'Lou Zahner Carden of the Saturday Market, people from the Springfield Creamery to talk about the Grateful Dead concert, Bill Wooten to talk about local politics and the Renaissance Faire, the Augur, KZEL and Switchboard, and local musicians. Spolan would also like to have discussions with interested people concerning Mall regulations, freeway construction, and Jesus people and Satan freaks.

"This is the first time the alternate community has been able to get on the air," Spolan said. He hopes the response will be strong enough to keep the show on the air longer than eight weeks.

new moon imports

-jewelry -wooden gift items

-leather goods

818 Willamette 343-7522

WELCOME BACK STUDENTS

Let us do your "Homework" . . .
eat at Sizzlers

SIZZLER

FAMILY STEAK HOUSES

TOP SIRLOIN STEAK

$1.79

With Potatoes & Sizzler Toast

CHILDREN'S PORTION HALF PRICE

A steak you can't afford to miss!

..... Hwy. 99N. one blk north of overpass — 688-7691
..... Coburg Rd. at Freeway Access — 343-6114
..... 68 W. 29th, next to Post Office — 342-7521
..... 12th & Main, Springfield — 747-0433

..... All Houses Open 7 Days — 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.
..... Air Conditioned