MISC.

Alone for Thanksgiving? Join us at the Newman Center for Thanksgiving Dinner. Serving starts at 2:00 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 23. To help us prepare, call x4468, and let us know if you are coming.

Today's "Noonday Organ Recital" features Barry Turley in a two part performance of an organ mass by Johann Sebastian Bach. Unique among compositions by 18th century composers, Turley will present the Prelude in E-flat, the Kyrie-Christe Kyrie, and the Gloria. Next week's program will include the rest of the mass.

Concluding today's program is a token Thanksgiving piece written at the turn of the century by Sigfrid Karg-Elert. A bit "camp" by today's standards, the performance of this chorale prelude on "Now Thank We All Our God" should serve as a fitting prelude to the coming long weekend vacation.

Joanna Richner, thrice featured on "Noonday Organ Recital," will perform her Master's Recital tonight featuring works of J.S. Bach, Andre Raison, Felix Mendelssohn and Olivier Messiaen.

A tape recording of the seminar given by William Axford, librarian at Arizona State University, on Nov. 2 will be played today in 312 EMU at 3 p.m. The tape is approximately one hour long.

The Outdoor Program has cross country and downhill skiing trips leaving throughout Thanksgiving vacation. Mt. Shasta, Mt. Hood and Mt. Bachelor are some of the planned destinations. Sign up sheets and all pertinent data are listed on the weekly trip bulletin board in 23 EMU.

The Volunteer Services Office has requested some volunteers for this week's activities. Among volunteers needed are a person to be Santa Claus, reading tutors for third graders, a secretary, an instructor of basic grooming and charm for eleven-year old girls, and a person to coordinate visits to welfare recipients in nursing homes and private homes.

For more information contact the VSO at 275 E. 7th, or phone 343-5014 or 343-2943.
