

emerald
classifieds!

Ms! available

Want to find out about feminism?

The University Feminist office (306 EMU) has a library of feminist literature available. New magazines will include "Ms.", "Women: A Journal of Liberation," "No More Fun and Games," and "The Ladder: A Lesbian Review."

Literature is also available at the Women's Research and Information Center located at 605 PLC.

31

BASKIN-ROBBINS

ICE CREAM

Complete Ice Cream Party
Items for All Occasions

Hand Packed
ICE CREAM
31 Flavors

1925 River Rd.
Phone 688-9868

1365 Villard Street
Phone 345-9614

HIRONS

20% off regular price

18th & PEARL
1950 FRANKLIN BLVD.

Hirons are stocking the Johnson line of "ULTRA SHEEN" and "AFRO SHEEN". Numerous requests at Hirons prompted us to stock this line of cosmetics.

On Campus

Correction on reversed caption

Two photo captions appearing with a story on a Eugene Human Rights Commission hearing in Thursday's Emerald were inadvertently reversed.

Roscoe Wright, Eugene resident, was mistakenly identified as Dominick Vetri, ACLU representative, and Vetri was mistakenly identified as Wright.

Panel discusses careers in information

A workshop, "Careers in Information," will be held at the University Saturday, Jan. 27. The morning session from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the EMU, will feature a panel of seven professionals engaged in several special fields of information services.

Following the morning meeting, guest panelists will be honored at a luncheon at 1:00 p.m. in the Union.

Public seminar on photography today

A free public seminar on photography will be presented today at the University by medical photographer Paul Macapia, whose exhibition "The Land and the Sea" is being shown through Saturday at the EMU Art Gallery.

Macapia will discuss his photographic techniques, demonstrate equipment, and show slides from 3 to 5 p.m., in the EMU.

Jazz and rock concert today

The "12:30 Lab Band" of Lane Community College will perform an hour long concert of jazz and rock today in the School of Music Recital Hall.

Suitably enough, the 23-piece band will begin at 12:30 p.m.

Film on logging scheduled

A documentary on loggers, old-time logging, and the land in Pacific Northwest forests will be shown today at the University. The showing of "Natural Timber Country" will be a free public event at 4:30 p.m., in 177 Lawrence Hall.

Community

Indoor 'Saturday Market' to debut

A Saturday Market "moved indoors" will begin this Saturday and continue for one Saturday a month through April.

The Saturday Crafts Fair will run from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Lane County Fairgrounds and will feature local craftsmen and entertainers. Admission is 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

The other dates for the fair are February 3, March 10 and April 7. Craftsmen interested in exhibiting their wares should call Ed Reed at 687-1944.

Counseling group holds workshop

Evaluation Co-Counseling is a group formed to offer a new and unique way of working on individual problems. They are having a counseling introduction workshop Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 2274 Onyx St.

The focus of the group is on learning to discharge the emotional stress of past experiences. This discharge, in forms of crying, laughing or trembling, releases the pain. Once the pain is released the "Client views the problem being dealt with not in terms of pent up pain but through his unstressed rational, intelligent mind."

For further information contact Karrolle Engleman at 342-1071.

Varied menu at Vietnamese dinner

A Vietnamese dinner is being held at 6 p.m. today at the Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry St.

The dinner will feature a menu of chicken with many vegetables, nuoc mam sauce, steamed rice, green tea and sesame cookies. The meal is being sponsored by Medical Aid for Indochina.

Suggested donation for the dinner is $1.50 for adults and children under 12, 50 cents.

Safety for the beginning boater

The Coast Guard will present a "Saturday Outboard Special" program next Thursday from 7-9 p.m. at the Marine Corps Reserve Training Center on 13th Ave.

The program is about basic boating safety and will cover subjects such as rules of the road, how to repair an engine during flotation and how to use a fire extinguisher. The program is aimed at the beginning boater and there is no charge.

Looking for that "special gift?"

WE HAVE MANY UNIQUE, HANDCRAFTED GIFT IDEAS
IMPORTED FROM THE WESTERN PACIFIC

Shell Pearls

A dazzling display of necklaces and bracelets with the color, luster and weight of cultured pearls, but at a fraction of the price

Pearl Silver

Highest quality silver-plated candy dishes, serving trays, coffee and tea sets, napkin holders and salt and pepper sets with a unique "pearled" finish guaranteed not to tarnish or discolor

These and many other gift ideas such as glass and ceramic Flower Vases, Monkeypod Bowls, Laquer candy dishes and serving trays, wall plaques and Indian Brassware at:

the
Monkeypod Shop

THE SMALL SHOP

WITH BIG IDEAS

89 NEW
W BROADWAY ON THE MALL

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and four times weekly during summer session by the Emerald Board of Directors at the University of Oregon.

Second class postage paid at Eugene, Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates:

(1) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUO and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is approximately $2.00 per year.

(11) Special subscriptions for persons not included in category (1) are available at a rate of $10.00 per year, $9.00 per academic year and $3.50 per term.

Bill Bucy Editor
Al Phelps General Manager

