MISC.

The Survival Center is seeking students to help in a "Phone Tree" for the current state legislative session. The purpose of the "tree" would be to disseminate information to a large number of persons in a relatively short time and with a minimum of hassle. Participants in the "tree" would be responsible for phoning approximately five other persons, and either phoning or writing the Senator or Representative by whom he or she is represented. Interested persons please contact the Survival Center in M-111, ext. 4356.

Persons with arrest records who have had their cases dismissed are wanted to testify at state legislative hearings on the use of their records by law enforcement agencies. Call Gary at 687-0563.

Used Outdoor equipment may be bought or sold at one-third to three-fourths off the regular price at an "Equipment Swap" today at 7 p.m. Those wishing to sell equipment are asked to come at 6:30 p.m. For location or further information call 686-4365 or check the Outdoor Program in 23 EMU.

A bake sale, sponsored by Eugene Coalition Liberation Support Movement, will be held in front of the Co-op. All proceeds will go to the People's Workshop on Imperialism.

Jo Roach, Office of International Education, will provide information on the
