Amendment . . .

Some suggest that the five-person elected incidental fee committee would be equivalent to benevolent dictatorship.

But, according to Sonnenfeld, they would still be tied to State Board of Higher Education guidelines in determining the budget. Elected officials can also be recalled during the year by a petition containing signatures of not less than five per cent of the student body, under the amendment's provisions.

ASUO Senate President Cliff Zukin is more conservative in his assessment of the proposal.

"I think it is a great idea. They are working on a co-governance system. I think eventually we'll have to go to it, but I don't know that abolishing the senate is the right method," Zukin said.

"As I see it, then the faculty will not feel pressured to go to co-governmental structure. Now all the pressure is coming from the senate," he said.

"I'm not sure we would be in as strong a bargaining position. I threw out the concept of co-governance at the last Faculty Senate meeting when they discussed the weakness of the decision-making process by the faculty body. I didn't see where there was any real support for it."

Zukin said he isn't sure that the faculty considers the senate as legitimate "student input."

"Every motion we supported this year has failed, and so I'm not sure that the argument that the faculty and administration can say they've been attentive to student input holds much water, when they went against our opinion," he said.

"I think it all comes down to who gets elected student body president. If he's got his head together and a good staff, I think it would be beautiful," he said. He is concerned, however, with the seven-person negotiation committee. If the new executive doesn't

"I think it all comes down to who gets elected student body president. If he's got his head together and a good staff, I think it would be beautiful," he said. He is concerned, however, with the seven-person negotiating committee. If the new executive doesn't support the plan, he might reappoint a committee that wouldn't work hard enough to accomplish the change, Zukin said.

If the new executive has not "got it together," Zukin said, "the whole mess would come down because all the functions of the senate will have to be taken over by the executive, and he'll have to be incredibly efficient."

IUS legislative coordinator Don Brookhyser Monday told the Emerald that Rep. Stafford Hansell (R-Hermiston) had agreed to be the chief sponsor of another IUS proposal which directs the State Board of Higher Education "to establish guidelines for faculty evaluation after consulting with student governments."

The measure states that the guidelines will then be used in the granting of tenure and promotions, Brookhyser said.

He said "the whole purpose" of the legislation is to include as much student input as possible in evaluation procedures which now totally exclude students.

Rep. Larry Perry (D-Eugene) Monday announced that he introduced a bill "requiring publicly operated, subsidized or tax-exempt hospitals to admit patients for sterilization or abortion."

He said he introduced the measure at the request of the Oregon Women's Political Caucus, but added he hasn't "personally endorsed the concept fully."

He said he introduced the bill "in light of the recent Supreme Court decision" which ruled state laws prohibiting abortion before three months of pregnancy unconstitutional.

Perry said, "We must assure women their constitutional right to have an abortion in every city and town and in the facility of their choosing."

"It is a highly controversial area that needs full airing in public hearings," he concluded.

LOSE 20 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way! It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is, honestly, a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service) — cash is O.K. — to Information Sources Co., P.O. Box 982, Dept. ST, Carpinteria, Calif. 93013. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!
