why vote?

Next year the ASUO Executive, the Constitution Committee and the special co-governance Committee must rise above the politics of the past year, must dispense with the naive platitudes of "them versus us" administration vs. students and must realize that the confidentiality and trust, which are part of the requirements of any worthwhile relationship, are more critical at that level. Confrontation will not realize co-governance. Reason could. Sure it'll be difficult. And there's only a short year to do it in. And not too many students and faculty understand what's involved - yet. But whoever is elected President and Vice-President of this campus will have a mandate for responsibility, for rationality, for compassion, so that the foundation that has been started these past months, so that the effective management of student programs in next years, will be secured.

It's not a sinecure: it's an opportunity to grow in so many ways. It's also an opportunity to serve all of us, students, faculty, administrators and staff, in this supposedly academic community.

Two candidates will be elected. Your vote will help decide whether so-called "political commodities" or real students are given that mandate. You're, therefore, part of the problem. You could be part of the solution. Please Vote . . . Thanks.
