

"Pass the butter, please!"

This summer, like last summer, more people are going to be passing Coppertone® Tanning Butter than any other. Because Coppertone is chock-full of cocoa butter and coconut oil and other soft, buttery things that help you get a deep, rich, tropical-looking tan. So when you ask for tanning butter, make sure they pass you the tanning butter—Coppertone.

A product of Plough, Inc. Official Sun Care Products of Florida's Walt Disney World.

On Campus

Correction: Brownridge won

The Emerald incorrectly reported on Page 1 in Wednesday's paper that Dennis Brownridge was disqualified from the WRA Slow Bike Race. Brownridge in fact won.

Gay rights bill supported

The Eugene Gay Peoples Alliance is distributing material in support of Senate Bill 2930, the gay rights bill, on the EMU terrace today. Bill 2930 would prohibit discrimination in employment or housing on the basis of sexual orientation. For further information contact Randy Shilts at x3720 or 345-3671.

Friday last day to drop classes

The Registrar's office reminds students that Friday is the last day to drop a course and also to make credit changes. Drop-Add forms may be obtained at the Office of the Registrar from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. A department stamp is required for each drop or credit change. A $1.00 charge is made for each transaction.

Picnic set for foreign students, friends

All married foreign students and faculty and their families and American friends are invited to a picnic on Saturday at 11:30 a.m. at the 1st Congregational Church, 24th and Harris. The picnic is sponsored by the International Friends unit of the Foreign Student Friendship Foundation.

Each family is asked to bring a picnic lunch. Hot and cold drinks will be furnished but families should bring their own plates and cups or glasses. Games are planned for children and adults with small prizes for the children. For further information call Gilma Greenhoot, 344-2923 or Annemieke Golly, 343-8050.

Muslim to deliver public lecture

A free public lecture on "The Revolutionary Nature of Islam" will be delivered today at the University. Mwalemu Abdolhamid Akoni, director of the Black Study Center at the University of California at Santa Barbara, will speak at noon in the EMU. The room number will be posted in the main lobby. His appearance at the University is sponsored by the Muslim Students Association.

Personality in residence named

Captain Thomas Johnson will be a "personality in residence" in University dormitories today through Saturday.

Capt. Johnson of the U.S. Air Force, is assistant professor of aerospace studies at San Jose State College, California.

During his visit on the campus, he and Mrs. Johnson will live in the dormitories, eat meals with students, and meet informally with students. He will also be the University's guest speaker at the Air Force ROTC for their Dining Out awards dinner Saturday. The dinner will be held at The Colonial Inn.

Geology lecture scheduled

The University Geology Department is presenting William Holser who will speak on "Isotopes in marine sulfates and the history of the ocean and atmosphere." The talk is scheduled for 1:30 today in Room 307, Volcanology.

Jazz musician schedules two shows

Tickets are on sale at the University this week for two shows by jazz musician Les McCann on Sunday on the Oregon campus. The tickets are available at the main desk of the EMU. The price is $2.50 per ticket. The Les McCann jazz sessions are set for 6:30 and 9 p.m., Sunday, in the EMU Ballroom. The shows are sponsored by the Black Student Union.

Community

Plans for 'Indochina Weekend' continue

Medical Aid for Indochina will meet tonight to complete plans for the Medical Aid for Indochina Weekend, and to divide publicity and other responsibilities. A weekend of special emphasis on Indochina will happen May 18, 19 and 20, with a Bach Mai Benefit Poetry Reading as the main event.

Other activities will include slide presentations, guerrilla theater, music and speakers, both on campus and in the community. All interested persons are encouraged to attend the 8 p.m. planning session at the Eugene Peace Center, 119 East 10th, or to contact Marion Barnes for more information.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and four times weekly during summer session by the Oregon Daily Emerald Board of Directors, Incorporated, at the University of Oregon.

Second class postage paid at Eugene, Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates:

(1) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUO and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is approximately $2.00 per year.

(11) Special subscriptions for persons not included in category (1) are available at a rate of $10.00 per year, $9.00 per academic year and $3.50 per term.

Torrie McAllister
Al Phelps

Editor
General Manager