

OF GRAPE & GRAIN ..

Our Wine of the Week . . .

Louis Martini's

Zinfandel

A California red wine vintage of 1970 Reg. 2.50

2.10 per fifth with this coupon

(One coupon per person, offer good Friday the 12th thru Thursday the 18th)

Our selection this week is from Louis Martini's Zinfandel vineyards in California. This particular grape is grown only in California, and makes an easygoing wine that is excellent with barbeques, steaks, or roasts. It is a medium bodied red wine, fairly dry, with a charming, zestful flavor of its own. Martini makes one of the best Zinfandels in this price range, and with our discount, this is a superb value.

Graduate announces entry to House race

Gary Bond, a University graduate, announced his candidacy for State Representative, District 43 Thursday.

Speaking at the Eugene Hotel, Bond said that the major thrust of his campaign will be towards developing solutions to Oregon's current economic problems. Bond said, if elected, he would work for reforms which would encourage self-employment, part-time employment, and employment after retirement.

Bond also emphasized the need for more state-supported vocational education, and a separate type of health plan with better benefits for state residents.

Bond, a Democrat, worked last fall as state organizer for Wayne Morse's Senatorial campaign.

ON CAMPUS

Navigators head to speak on Christ tonight

Chuck Hunt will speak about "The man, Christ Jesus," at 7:30 tonight, in the Bean East conference room.

Hunt, Northwest regional director for the Navigators, an interdenominational Christian campus organization, has served with this group in Singapore, the Midwest, and now in Seattle. Those interested in knowing more about Christ are invited to come.

Karate demonstration to be held

A karate demonstration will be held at Mac Court Wednesday at 7:30. Demonstrating goju ryu karate will be Tervo Chinen, head instructor of this style in the U.S. The demonstration is free.

AFROTC commandant to visit campus

Brig. Gen. Robert White, assigned to Air University as commandant of Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps, (AFROTC) will be a visitor at the University Tuesday.

Gen. White, who is on a tour of Northwestern AFROTC Detachments, will be at the University from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

The first Air Force pilot awarded the rating of winged astronaut for flying the X-15 rocket-powered aircraft at an altitude of 59.6 miles above the earth, 49-year-old Gen. White was also the first man to fly a winged craft six times faster than the speed of sound (3,093 miles an hour).

He was systems program director of the F-15 Air Superiority Fighter in 1968-69 and, before assuming command of AFROTC, was Commander of the Air Force Flight Test Center at Edwards AFB, Calif.

Jews against fascism correct story

Members of the Jews Against Fascism told the Emerald Thursday their press release at a Tuesday press conference stated support for the "Arab peoples" in the Arab-Israeli War. The Emerald reported the group was expressing support for "Arab countries."

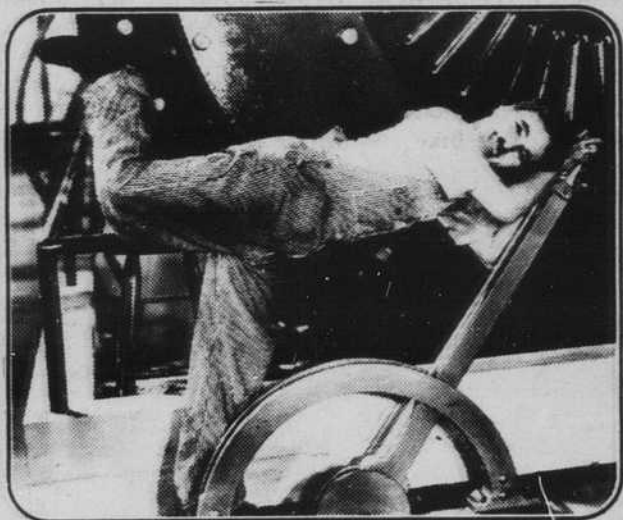

JAF members also said the press release did not indicate support for the recent Arab kidnapping of four Austrian persons although they felt that the closing down of the Austrian immigration camp for Russian Jews was a good thing. The Emerald reporter said she received the information indicating support which appeared in a story on page 15 of Wednesday's Emerald when she asked if they condoned the recent kidnapping and received a reply in the affirmative.

If this answer reflected only the opinion an individual in the group and not the JAF the Emerald regrets any inconvenience it may have caused the group members.
