

Jantzen gargoyle?

... we don't have it.

... or gargyle, or even argoyle. But we do have something called Jantzen argyle (remember the funny pattern on the sides of your socks in grade school?). The Emporium has Jantzen sweaters in every pattern, in every style you can think of, except maybe ... gargoyle. Remember, you can find your sweater, in your pattern, in your style, at your store, the Emporium.

The Political Science Student Union (PSSU) recently elected 15 students to participate on seven departmental committees, according to Ann Aiken, PSSU president.

Aiken said political science majors with complaints, suggestions or questions about departmental procedures may contact the student representatives listed below by committee.

Dorms carving pumpkins for crippled children

Twelve children from the Children's Hospital School will be guests of three University dormitory units Sunday for a pumpkin carving party.

The party, starting at 4 p.m., will be in the dining room of Boynton Hall, a unit of Hamilton dormitory. Hosts for the party are members of Boynton and McClain Halls, both units of Hamilton dormitory, and Thornton Hall, unit of Bean Dormitory.

Following the party, the carved pumpkins will be delivered to the pediatrics ward of Sacred Heart Hospital and to nursing homes.

TV programs to be produced on campus

A series of 10 programs on "School-Community Relations" will be produced by the University's Division of Broadcast Services and Televised Instruction.

The programs, starting Nov. 6, are a project of the Oregon Educational Public Broadcasting System (OEPBS) for the Oregon Parent-Teacher's Association.

The series, funded in part by OEPBS, will be produced in the studios of the Division on the University campus, under the direction of Mack Schwab, producer-director of OEPBS's KOAC-TV, Corvallis. Schwab will be assisted by Kenneth Jensen, University graduate student in broadcasting.

A crew of four University undergraduate students will be selected to work under Schwab and Jensen, according to John Shepard, director of the Division.

Reno trip scheduled by law students

A weekend trip to Reno, open to anyone over 21, is being initiated as a private undertaking by some students of the University Law School. The trip is scheduled for Nov. 16-18 with the cost set at $37.

The cost includes a round trip by charter bus with all the beer you can drink; two nights at the Golden Nugget, six meals and a variety of other items. Reservations should be made by Thursday. For further information contact Kelly Beeman at 686-3871.

Liberation movement meeting on tap tonight

There will be a meeting tonight of the Eugene Coalition Liberation Support Movement in the EMU at 7:30 p.m. The Middle East, the Nov. 17 Vietnam march, and the ASUO will be discussed. Interested people are invited. The room will be posted.

Air Pollution Authority moves offices

Lane Regional Air Pollution Authority has moved its office location to 16 Oakway Mall, Eugene.

Formerly located at the old terminal building at Mahlon Sweet Airport, the Authority changed location for better agency efficiency and to make the office easily accessible to the general public.

Office location is on the Oakway Road side of the mall, just south of the main entrance to the side mall.

New telephone numbers have been assigned the agency with the prefix of 484. The numbers are 484-0558 and 484-0559.

The official mailing address is 16 Oakway Mall, Eugene, Oregon 97401.

Morse slated for tonight's American Circus

Grattan Kerans and the American Circus will present an evening with former U.S. Senator Wayne Morse tonight from 7-8 p.m. on KZEL-FM, 96.1. The talk show will be the first of a series of weekly shows on current issues.

The United Nations Day show will focus on Morse's views on a number of international and national situations, including the constitutional crisis precipitated in Washington by President Nixon's firing of special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox.

Morse will be responding to questions from commentator Grattan Kerans and from listeners who may call during the show. The number to call is 747-1221.
