

Alexander's last stand...

...and Alexander's last portable T.V., and last stereo and speaker system, and last refrigerator or washer-dryer combination, and every last stick of furniture! Everything must be closed-out as the 2nd Emporium in Springfield discontinues the Old Alexander's Furniture & Appliance Department inventory. Brand names like G.E., Whirlpool, Amana, Bassett, Broyhill, Simmons, & must be liquidated...down to Alex's last stand. "Alexander had it coming!"

Remember, it's your choice, at your sale, in your store, the Emporium.

Emporium

538 Main, Springfield Willamette Plaza, 29th & Willamette, Eugene

ON CAMPUS

Environmentalism's luncheon set for today

Jeff Detlefsen will make a presentation on the Campus Resource Recovery program at the Environmentalism's Luncheon today at noon in the EMU room to be posted. A discussion of the program and other environmental issues will follow the presentation.

Band, films on tap for Fantasy Symposium

The week-long Fantasy Symposium on campus continues today taking advantage of the fact that today is Halloween.

At 8 p.m., Upepo will present a program of jazz, Middle Eastern and Latin American music with visuals, mime and a belly dancer in the EMU ballroom. Cost will be $1.

At midnight, three fantasy films — "Kwaidan," "Sins of the Fleshapoids," and "Milestones in Animation" — will be shown in the ballroom for $1.

Glen Canyon Dam film scheduled tonight

The Outdoor Program will sponsor the Sierra Club film "Glen Canyon" tonight at 7 p.m. in the EMU.

"The film describes the destruction of this Utah wilderness area by the construction of the Glen Canyon Dam," said Outdoor Program assistant director Bruce Mason. "The shots of the area before and after the dam's construction present a sordid picture of how man's technology can perpetrate ecological genocide," he said.

'Guru' movie slated for this afternoon

Do you want to find out how to stay high naturally all the time, free of charge? Come to the movie "Who is Guru Maharaj Ji," to be shown at Science 123 at 4:30 p.m. today. Admission is free. As the winner of the Golden Jury Award at the Atlanta Film Festival in September, 1973, the film introduces Guru Maharaj Ji and relates his purpose for living.

Transcendental Meditation lecture tonight

Marcus and Judith Lehrman will give an introductory lecture on Transcendental Meditation (TM) tonight at 8 p.m. in 216 Allen Hall. The Lehrmans spent nearly a year studying with Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, and are now teaching TM in Eugene. This introductory meeting is sponsored by the Student's International Meditation Society.

Trio presents progressive, avant-garde music

Music for people into progressive and avant-garde will be presented by the Monastic Trio at the Music Recital Hall today from 7-10 p.m. Performing are Sonny King, alto sax; Ricky Simmons, drums; and John Maller at the organ.

Child Care Center ready for more children

The Child Care and Development Center has openings to care for four children who are at the center all day and many many children who are there part of the day.

Parents and their children are admitted on a priority basis according to need. Any interested parents are asked to contact Kathy Sacks at 1511 Moss St. or call 686-4384 for further information.

COMMUNITY

Conflict-of-interest legislation to be aired

The Governor's veto of conflict-of-interest legislation and a probable Common Cause initiative petition will be the topic of Grattan Kerans and the American Circus Wednesday on KZEL-FM Radio (96.1) from 7 to 8 p.m., phone 747-1221.

Guests on the show will be Robert Davis, assistant to Gov. Tom McCall, and David Frohnmayer, a University of Oregon Law School professor who is on the board of directors of Common Cause. Frohnmayer has also been appointed to a Blue Ribbon Committee appointed by McCall to make recommendations on conflict of interest legislation to him.

Salvation Army services scheduled

Four nights of special evangelistic services will be conducted at 7 p.m. Thursday through Sunday in the Salvation Army chapel in Eugene. Major Frederick Gibson, Army Commander for Lane County announced today.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and four times weekly during the summer 8 week session by the Oregon Daily Emerald Board of Directors, Incorporated, at the University of Oregon.

Second class postage paid at Eugene, Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates

(1) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUO and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is $2.00 per year.

(2) Special subscriptions for persons not included in (1) are available at a rate of $12.00 per year, $10.00 per academic year and $4.00 per term.

Editor

Torrie McAllister

General Manager

Al Phelps

Advertising Manager

David Jinings