A New Sign on Campus

This week you'll see a new fraternity insignia on campus.

*Delta Upsilon International Fraternity is at work
building a new chapter
at their fraternity.*

We're hard at work interviewing men who will make Delta Upsilon a unique fraternity of excellence.

\ Do you qualify?
You may if you have
better than average
curiosity, aren't afraid
to try something new,
hard work, or the satisfaction of starting to build something new.*

We're the Fraternity of the Unpledge, complete contemporary membership development . . . the non-secret fraternity, and the sixth oldest.

The Men of Delta Upsilon International Fraternity

there are scores of fraternities, we're the new, non-secret one.

have graduated from an Oregon high school and be either an undergraduate or graduate student at the University. Other things being equal preference will be given to the son or daughter of a present or past employee of the Oregon Journal. Application deadline is March 31.

David School and Friends will be the featured artists for the Fishbowl Follies today and Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the EMU Fishbowl. No admission will be charged.

Applications are being accepted for candidates for the Rotary Foundation educational awards for study abroad in 1975-76, the Rotary Club of Eugene has announced. The deadline is March 15.

The Foundation offers four types of awards: Graduate fellowships for students 20-28 years old; undergraduate scholarships for students with a minimum of two years of university level work and who are 18-24 years old; technical training awards for those with a secondary education and at least two years of work experience who are 21-35 years old; awards to teachers of the handicapped for those who have been engaged as full time teachers of the mentally, physically or educationally handicapped for at least two years at the time of application and are 25-50 years old.

Each award includes round-trip transportation, educational and living expenses for one academic year and funds for intensive language training if necessary.

Further information about the awards is available from any member of the Rotary Club of Eugene.

SPEAKERS

"The People's Republic of China: Schools and Universities" is the topic of a lecture to be presented Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. in Studio C of the Audio-Visual department of the University Library by Dr. Albert Yee, dean of graduate studies and research at California State University at Long Beach. The lecture is sponsored by the University's Center for Educational Policy and Management.

Carolyn Keutzer of the psychology department and counseling center will lecture Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. on "Existential Humanistic Psychology." The lecture, to be presented in 204 Chapman, is part of the Honors College Arts and Letters course.
