

... from the Bookstore

Mt. Hood

Portrait of a Magnificent Mountain

by

Don & Roberta Lowe

Mt. Hood in text and pictures. Beautiful color photographs of Mt. Hood in all its moods and through the seasons. A perfect gift for any lover of the Northwest.

$25.00

The People's Almanac

by

David Wallechinsky & Irving Wallace

This picks up where other almanacs leave off. Probably this year's most intriguing book. 1500 pages

$7.95 paper

New Columbia Encyclopedia

Completely revised edition of Columbia's famous one-volume encyclopedia.

$69.50

Pyramid

by

David Macaulay

The author of Cathedral and City now uses his superb line drawings to illustrate the building of the pyramids.

$7.95

Willard and His Bowling Trophies

by

Richard Brautigan

Brautigan's latest novel — "a perverse mystery" —

$5.95

Whole Earth Cookbook 2

by

Sharon Cadwallader

The second volume of the Whole Earth Cookbook. All new recipes.

$4.95 paper

The Monkey Wrench Gang

by

Edward Abbey

The author of Desert Solitaire lives out his conservationist fantasies via this wonderfully entertaining novel.

$8.95

Made From Oak

by

Jeffrey Friedman-Weiss

A full-color photo essay on antique oak furniture.

$5.95 paper

Anno's Alphabet

by

Mitsumasa Anno

A unique alphabet by the author of Topsy-Turvy.

Nostalgia

The ultimate collection for the nostalgia buff. 850 pages of text & photos

$19.95

Bears Nature Guide

by

Stan & Jan Berenstain

The Berenstain Bears take your child on a fascinating nature walk.

$3.95

University of Oregon Bookstore

