

A University physical education student found himself $500 short after his class Tuesday afternoon.

Campus security reported the lock on the student's locker, where the money had been kept, had not been tampered with, although the thief could have entered with a key, or picked the lock.

Other recent complaints made to the campus security department included theft of a knapsack at Gilbert Hall, theft of an auto battery and vandalism to a maintenance office at Hayward Field.

A knapsack with $66 worth of personal property was taken from 338 Gilbert between 8:30 and 9 p.m. Monday evening.

The battery theft took place in parking lot 34, adjacent to basketball courts across 15th Street from Bean Complex.

Damage sustained at Hayward Field included six wooden doors and their locks being broken, and destroyed partitions in the bathroom. Also stolen was a pair of coveralls, valued at $25.

One arrest was reported by the department in a case involving drugs. William Roger McCluskey of 1257 1/2 High St.,

Stealing common campus crime

Eugene, was booked for criminal activity in drugs when a resident of Cloran Hall in Hamilton Complex called campus security, claiming the suspect was going door-to-door attempting to sell marijuana. Campus security confiscated a half-pound of marijuana.

...et al Mission collecting phone books

Last year's phone books are two and three-quarters pounds of worthless paper now that the new edition is out.

The Eugene Mission is ready to take them off your hands. Phone books can be recycled at any of the many Mission drop boxes around town or at the paper recycling center at the south side of the EMU. The covers need not be removed. The Mission will pick up phone books in quantities of 25 or more.

The phone company has made no arrangements for recycling the old books.

Registrar compiling degree list

The list of degree candidates for winter term graduation is now being compiled by the Office of the Registrar. The last day upon which an application may be filed for degree to be granted winter term is Friday, Jan. 23. This date will be enforced because of the many operations of checking, clearing and printing which must follow.

To qualify for the degree applied for, a student must have completed all necessary work and procedures by the end of the term. All transcripts from other schools which are necessary for a degree should be sent to the attention of Graduation, Office of the Registrar, in order that it may be on file by the deadline of March 26. This includes work taken through the Division of Continuing Education.

Any student who has applied previously and did not receive the degree must reapply. Likewise, any student who does not meet the deadlines must reapply for a future date.

Bridge club slates activities

The Eugene Bridge Club holds a duplicate game every Monday and Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Eugene Garden Club on 1645 High. The cost is $1.25 per player, except for students, who pay only $1. Coffee is served free at each game. If you need a partner, or information, call Col. Fred Smith at 747-6585.

Courses offer practical help to managers

The University College of Business Administration will sponsor three management seminars during January in Portland.

"Improving Management Skills" will be offered Jan. 21-23; "Managing the Closely Held Company," Jan. 26-28; and "Material Requirements Planning," Jan. 29-30.

The seminar on "Improving Management Skills" is designed to update experienced supervisors or to help new managers make a good start. "Managing the Closely Held Company for Results" is to improve individual effectiveness across the broad range of responsibilities typically assigned to key managers in closely held companies. "Material Requirements Planning" is directed to the variety of managers, and will cover inventory levels, lead times, and control, including buyers, production control and managers and plant managers.

Registration information may be obtained from Juli Morison at the College of Business Administration, 686-3300.
