

ASUO to release handbook

The ASUO is releasing a student handbook in mid-February containing information that Jan Harris, ASUO press officer, says will give students some idea "how to live and breathe at the University of Oregon."

The handbook, not yet titled, contains a brief history of the University, a run-down on ASUO governance bodies, agencies and programs, along with sections covering costs of education, housing information and recreation. Campus and busline maps and a directory will also be included in the guide.

Three thousand copies of the guide are being published at no cost to the University or the ASUO by American Publishers of San Diego, Calif.

American Publishers was turned down last year when they approached the University with the handbook idea. The company then went to the ASUO who accepted the idea.

Visiting prof. to speak on ghetto

Brian Berry, professor and chair of the University of Chicago geography department, will deliver a lecture Thursday at 8 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

Berry, author or contributor to more than 80 books on urban geography and planning, will speak on the topic of "Ghetto Expansion and Housing Prices—Chicago Center, 1967-1972." The public is invited and admission is free.

Berry is well-known in the field of statistical applications to urban geography, economics, planning and regional economics. During his visit to the University, he also will meet informally with geography students and faculty, and will deliver a short talk in the geography department prior to his evening lecture.

Employment hearing cancelled

An arbitration before the Oregon Employment Relations Board (ERB) scheduled for Tuesday was cancelled due to the absence of the University's lawyer, Assistant Attorney General William Hoelscher.

J. Edgar Hale, arbitrator in the case, was to have heard testimony concerning a dispute between Jack Condliffe and the University. The disagreement arose when Condliffe, a dormitory food services worker last year in Carson Hall, was not rehired in September because he was no longer living in the dorm.

Because of conflicting commitments between the parties involved, Condliffe says the hearing will not be re-scheduled for at least a month.

Trio to conduct lectures, demos

The Elizabethan Trio, a performing group that will present a concert of English Renaissance music and poetry tonight in Beall Hall at 8, will also conduct lectures and demonstrations today, open to the public and free of charge.

The lecture-demonstrations also will be in Beall Hall at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

The evening concert is $2 for students and $3 general admission.

Budget requests still coming in Three more programs have now submitted 1976-77 budget requests to the ASUO Executive.

Off-Campus Housing, Food-Op. and Man on the Oregon Coast have requested a total of $56,973. These programs were allocated $16,936.13 for 1975-76.

Individual requests compared with last year's actual allocations are:

Program	1975-76 allocation	1976-77 request
Off-Campus Housing	$4,791.02	$5,824.00
Food-Op	11,475.11	48,439.00
Man on the Ore. Coast	670.00	2,710.00

The Political Science Student Union and the Social Workers Interest Group have not yet submitted budget requests.

The "briefs" section is for campus and community announcements. No brief will be published that charges an admission or donation fee. However, classes that charge tuition or dinner events that offer a free program even to those who do not buy a dinner will be accepted.

All briefs must be typed, triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Handwritten briefs will be given low priority. Briefs will be published one time only in any seven-day period, as space permits.

The deadline for briefs is 2 p.m. the day before publication.

12:30 p.m. At 9 this evening it will be shown at the Homefried Truck Stop. The film deals with the imprisonment of Vladimir Gukowski and Amnesty International's attempt to free him. Following the film there will be a discussion of how Amnesty International works for political prisoners all over the world. For more information call 343-2622.
