Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during fall, winter and spring terms, except during exam weeks and vacation periods. During summer session the Emerald is published Tuesday and Thursday during the eight-week term and on Thursday the last three weeks of the eleven-week term.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 94703.

Subscription rates:
(1) University of Oregon student and faculty-staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts the Emerald makes with the Associated Students of the University of Oregon and with the University administration. The subscription rate is $3.44 a person.
(2) Special subscriptions for persons not in category (1) are available for $20 a year (12 months) or $7 a term.

The Oregon Daily Emerald offices are in the north wing of the Erb Memorial Union.

Exec erred in budget reports

The Social Workers Interest Group has submitted a budget request for 1976-77 to the ASUO Executive.

The ASUO incorrectly reported yesterday that the program had not handed in a request.

The group is asking for $960. It was allocated $510 last year.

The Executive also incorrectly cited $11,475.11 as the allocation received by the Food-Op last year. The program actually received $15,787.11

Dance to aid ailing center

Turkey Run, a country-Martian music group, will provide the music for a benefit dance for the Child Care and Development Center (CCDC) Saturday, Jan. 31, at the WOW Hall on 8th Avenue and Lincoln Street.

The "briefs" section is for campus and community announcements. No brief will be published that charges an admission or donation fee. However, classes that charge tuition or dinner events that offer a free program even to those who do not buy a dinner will be accepted.

Admission to the dance, which will start at 9:30 p.m., is $1.50 per person. Refreshments, donated by various community stores, and free child care will be available at the dance.

The dance is part of a fundraising program that developed out of recent CCDC budget problems.

History expert to give lecture

The effects of foreign occupation in Germany will be the subject of a public lecture by John Gimbel, history professor at Humboldt State University in Arcata, Calif., Friday at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

His talk is titled "The Russians are Coming: The State Department and the Occupation of Germany." Gimbel, a University alumnus, has published three books on the occupation of Germany and ranks as one of the nation's top scholars on the subject.

The history department is sponsoring the free event.

Documents tell county action

Public documents related to Lane County's compliance with Oregon Land Conservation and Development Commission regulations are now available for public review.

The County Planning Division at 135 East 6th Ave., Eugene, maintains the documents, and citizens may review them during normal business hours.

Staff members are available by appointment to discuss the materials and the county's program for compliance with state requirements.

Interested citizens may call John Bennett or Lee Miller at 687-4186 to set up an appointment.

The Board of County Commissioners have scheduled a public hearing on the compliance evaluation, exceptions to the statewide goal for agriculture and citizen involvement program.

The hearing will be Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in Harris Hall at 125 East 8th Ave., Eugene.

All briefs must be typed, triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Handwritten briefs will be given low priority. Briefs will be published one time only in any seven-day period, as space permits.

The deadline for briefs is 2 p.m. the day before publication.

Phenomena: All interested persons are welcome for further information on the Psi Studies Interdisciplinary Center, contact Doug Steinmetz in the SEARCH office.
