

Formal rush revived

April 6-12 has been set as spring formal rush for sororities, according to Meg Henningsen, Panhellenic president.

This will be the first formal rush held in the spring at the University for many years.

Those interested may register in the Panhellenic Office, Suite 3, EMU. Registration fee is $3 and the deadline for registration is March 5.

An orientation meeting will be held Monday, April 5, at 7 p.m. in the EMU.

Emerald typo corrected

The Emerald editorial, "Second Coincidence," Friday, contained a typographical error. On March 23, the State Board of Education will vote on a 12 per cent tuition increase, and not a 23 per cent increase as printed.

The "briefs" section is for campus and community announcements. No brief will be published that charges an admission or donation fee. However, classes that charge tuition or dinner events that offer a free program even to those who do not buy a dinner will be accepted.
All briefs must be typed, triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Handwritten briefs will be given low priority.

Ensemble sets concert

The University Percussion Ensemble will perform Monday at 8 p.m. in the music school's Beall Concert Hall. Admission is free.

Prof. Charles Dowd and the 13 ensemble members will perform a program of chamber percussion works. Included will be:

A work for 13 percussionists and chorus, "African Welcome Piece," by Michael Udown, featuring the University Chamber Choir directed by Prof. James Miller.

Steve Baldwin, senior music major—and scholarship-winning percussionist, who will perform a Bach transcription on the vibraphone.

The University Marimba Quartet, which will perform a transcription of a Haydn string quartet.

Reserved seating is available for student groups. For more information, contact the music school, 686-3761, or Charles Dowd, 686-3885.

Briefs will be published one time only in any seven-day period, as space permits.

MEETINGS
