

...et al Lecture dates corrected

Meeting places for two Eugene Public Library lectures were erroneously listed in Thursday's Surface and Symbol Calendar of Events.

Dr. William J. Handy, University English professor, will speak on "Kesey's Other Cuckoo's Nest," at 7:30 p.m. Monday in St. Mary's Episcopal Parish social hall, 166 E. 13th.

Kesey himself will discuss "The Library in the Community," beginning at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Methodist Church social hall, 14th and Olive Street.

Surface and Symbol editors regret the errors.

Headline goofs play location

The headline of the article on Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" incorrectly listed the Cogurg Inn as the performance location. The play will be staged at the Country Squire, April 3, 4, 10, 11, 23, 24, and 25. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. The Emerald regrets the error.

Spring gets Persian touch

The beginning of spring marks the Iranian New Year, Norooz, one of the most ancient national holidays in Iran.

Following national cultural traditions, Iranian Students at the University will celebrate Norooz by presenting Iranian folk dances and songs, Persian food, plays and other activities.

The celebration will take place Saturday, April 3, at 6:30 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom. Admission for the event is $3.

Saturday is the last day of the holiday which began March 21. The festivities signify the awakening of nature from the sleep of winter.

The announcement appearing in Thursday's Emerald for the new year celebration contained an incorrect date.

The Emerald regrets the error.

Hotel hosts Audubon films

The final program of a series of Audubon films will be shown Saturday night at 7:30 at the Eugene Hotel. The program is a film on the migration mysteries of birds. The creator of the film, Walter J. Breckenridge, will be present to answer questions. Admission is $1.50.

MEETINGS

The Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group (OSPIRG) will kick off several new projects tonight at 7 during a mass meeting in the EMU room to be posted.

Included among this spring's line up are: an initiative campaign to establish an independent advocate for consumer rights in utility matters; a survey of attitudes concerning the use and regulation of off-road vehicles; a survey of bike outlets and opportunities in Eugene; and a comparative analysis of supermarket prices.

Students and non-students interested in assisting these or other OSPIRG efforts are invited to attend the meeting which will be preceded by the OSPIRG film, "Clearcut Views."

MISCELLANEOUS

The University of Oregon Psychology Clinic will be offering a sexual dysfunction treatment program this Spring for women who have never been orgasmic. Offered is group treatment for women who have a stable relationship with a cooperating male partner. Interested women should call the Psychology Clinic at 686-4964 today from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to arrange for a preliminary interview.

Ethnic East European folk dances will be taught spring term by visiting professor Ron Waxman. The class will be held 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays in Gerlinger Gym and is open to all students. Waxman spent several years in Europe collecting dances and studying their background. Students can register for the class in Gerlinger Annex.
