

Infant care now available

Area residents looking for a place that offers child care for infants and toddlers can now look to the University. The EMU's Drop-in Child Care Program has some openings "at various times and on various days," according to Ed Casto, program director.

This spring the program decided to work exclusively with infants and toddlers during the day to fill a need in the community. Casto says the EMU's program is the only such facility in Lane County.

Children will be accepted during the hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The rates for child care are $1 per hour for the children of University students and $1.15 per hour for other children. Snacks are provided for the children.

Casto adds that the evening program, from 6 to 10 p.m., also has openings. This program accepts older children as well as infants and toddlers at the same rates.

Meeting to cover militarism

The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) will co-sponsor a meeting today with the YWCA on "Militarism and Jobs: Women in the Economy."

Margaret Simeral of the University Economics Department and Marion Barnes, WILPF national board member, will both speak briefly.

The talks will be followed by an audiovisual presentation by the Ladeezzy Kranky Society and Kazoo Chorus, intended to show the oppression of women in the U.S. and abroad.

The meeting will take place at 1 p.m. in Gerlinger Hall. Refreshments and childcare will be available.

Though it is a "drop-in" program, parents must make a reservation for their children. Reservations and more information may be obtained by calling 686-4345.

The program is licensed by the State of Oregon and all personnel are properly certified for child care.

DA candidate sets address

Betty Browne, candidate for district attorney of Lane County, will be speaking Monday at 12:30 p.m. at the University Law School, Room 121.

The speech, sponsored by the Student Bar Association, is open to the public.

Aid petition due Tuesday

The last day to initiate a petition for spring financial aid will be Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. according to Emmett R. Williams, acting director of the Student Financial Aid Office.

All petitioning processes begun prior to that time will be reviewed for change of grade status information relating to the 12-hour audit.

The financial aid office will continue to remain closed from 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. through the end of April. This time will be spent processing summer and academic year awards for 1976-77 and working on the conversion to the computer system.

Feminism topic of author's talk

"Feminism and Femininity" is the title of a speech to be given by Juliet Mitchell tonight at 7:30 in 138 Gilbert. She will also give a sociology department-sponsored colloquium at 3:30 today in 138 Gilbert. Both meetings are open to the public.

Mitchell has written "Women's Estate" and "Psychoanalysis and Feminism." Her campus appearance is sponsored by eight campus organizations including the Student Bar Association, Women's Studies Center, Women's Law Forum, Political Science department, and the Women's Studies Association.

MISCELLANEOUS

The list of degree candidates for spring term graduation is now being compiled by the Office of the Registrar. The last day upon which an application may be filed for degree to be granted spring term is April 16. This date will be enforced because of the many operations of checking, clearing and printing which must follow.

To qualify for the degree applied for, a student must have completed all necessary work and procedures by the end of the term. All transcripts from other schools which are necessary for a degree should be sent to the attention of Graduation, Office of the Registrar, in order that it may be on file by the deadline of June 18. This includes work taken through the Division of Continuing Education.

Any student who has applied previously and did not receive the degree must reapply. Likewise, any student who does not meet the deadlines must reapply for a future date.

Today is the deadline to turn in applications for Resident Assistant positions in the University dormitories. Applications are to be turned into the Housing Office, Carson Hall, by 4:30 p.m.

Unhappy with a professor? Think a grade was unjust? The University Academic Grievance Committee could help.

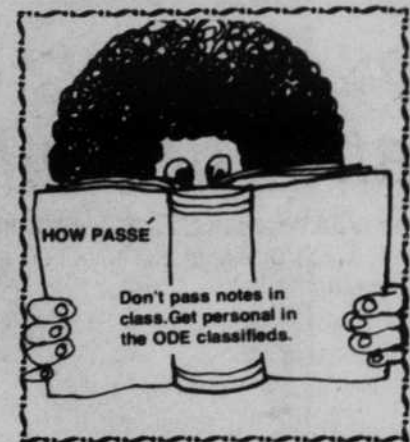

Any student can submit a written, signed complaint to the committee. Upon receipt, the complaint is forwarded to the professor named, giving him or her a chance to respond.

Complaints may be submitted to any member of the committee. Members are Mildred Carmack, chair, School of Law; Carol Keutzer, psychology; Roy Poole, education; Lewis Ward, mathematics; Bob Bowlin, dean of students, and John Crandall, student representative.

Interested in speaking Swedish? Edison East-side Community School has someone willing to teach adults free of charge in the afternoons. We'd like to begin the Swedish class right away so if you're interested or know someone who is call the community school at 687-3284.

The ASUO is in need of two students, one graduate and one undergraduate, to serve on the search committee for a new financial aid director. Applicants should presently be recipients of financial aid. To become involved, contact Peter Spratt, Suite 4, EMU.

The Environmental Studies Center and Resource Library will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday during spring term, in addition to 10:30 to 4:30, Monday through Friday. Credit is available for joining the staff and volunteers are welcome. For more information call ext. 5006 or stop in at 11 PLC.

EMU Check Cashing Information

The Erb Memorial Union Main Desk Store cashes checks as a service for students, faculty and staff of the University of Oregon. Students must present a current certificate of registration and a plastic identification card with picture; faculty/staff must present their plastic identification card with picture and current validation sticker.

There is a five cent service charge per check. Make checks payable to the Erb Memorial Union and include Eugene address and phone number (or department and extension for faculty/staff) on the check. The limit on checks is $5.00 until 4:30 p.m. weekdays and $10.00 evenings and weekends.

When writing checks, double-check your bank balance. Make sure what you think will be a "good check" doesn't turn out to be a "bad check." If your check is returned, there is a service charge of $3.00. This is in addition to any service charge charged by your bank. You will also lose the privilege of cashing checks at the Erb Memorial Union for the remainder of the year (July 1-June 30).

To abide by policies set forth by the banks: 1(We cannot accept counter checks, 2(There can be no alterations or changes made on checks, 3(We cannot accept personal second party checks and 4(If you do not have personalized checks additional I.D. must be presented.
