Delegate registration ends today

Registration for state delegates to the Mock Democratic Convention will close at 4 p.m. today. Interested students should register at the political science office, 936 PLC.

Over 740 persons have already signed up as delegates for the Political Science Student Union (PSSU)-sponsored convention, according to Mike Schaeffer, director of the program. A total of 1,000 students are needed to participate in the event, scheduled for May 13-14 in McArthur Court.

Students wishing to participate in the convention as special interests delegates have until Friday at 5 p.m. to sign up, Schaeffer said.

Deadline for scholarships near

Nominations for three outstanding junior student awards will be accepted through Thursday at the Office of Student Services.

Among the two open available to men is the Koyl Cup, awarded to the junior man showing the best all-around progress in areas of leadership, service, and academic achievement. The Maurice Harold Hunter Leadership Scholarship, covering full tuition, is given annually to a state resident junior man making the most notable contribution through his achievements and good example toward the development of leadership qualities among fellow students.

Available to junior women is the Gerlinger Cup awarded on the basis of achievements in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and service to the University.

The awards are of such a stature as to merit thorough consideration of all possible candidates and a student may nominate himself. Nominations should be sent to Associate Dean of Students Shirley Wilson, Student Services, 164 Oregon Hall, ext. 3211.

Teacher education professor dies

Paul Kambly, a University emeritus professor of education, died Monday morning in Eugene. He was 67 years old.

Kambly retired from 27 years of service to the University in June of 1973. He was known as "Mr. Teacher Education" at the University for his years of service to the field.

He was born May 14, 1908 in Cissna Park, Ill. He spent most of his years at Oregon building the teacher education division of the College of Education.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to the American Cancer Society.

The "briefs" section is for campus and community announcements. No brief will be published that charges an admission or donation fee. However, classes that charge tuition or dinner events that offer a free program even to those who do not buy a dinner will be accepted.

All briefs must be typed, triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Handwritten briefs will be given low priority. Briefs will be published one time only in any seven-day period, as space permits.

MEETINGS

There will be a meeting of the Black Art Festival Committee today at the Black Student Union office at 4 p.m. All old members and new members are welcome.

Alpha Kappa Psi will hold a meeting today at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU (room to be posted).

MISCELLANEOUS

Auditions will be held Thursday and Friday for the play "Nijinsky, the Moment He Married the Lord" at 7:30 p.m. in Room 201 Villard Hall. No preparation is necessary. For further information call the speech department office, 686-4171.

The Friendship With the Elderly program is in great need of volunteers to work with and help the elderly in the Eugene-Springfield area. One to five credits are available. Placements include visitation of elderly people in private and nursing homes, recreational work in nursing homes and senior centers and work with nutrition programs. Students can register at the ESCAPE table in the EMU Lobby. For further information call the ESCAPE office (327 EMU), 686-4351.

Depressed, unhappy, tired, listless? Frequently suffering from that futile feeling? The Counseling Center is providing a program to help deal with these difficulties. Call 686-3227 to make arrangements for an assessment to determine the suitability of the program for you. Call by Thursday between 8 a.m. and noon or 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.
