TAKING OFF
WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY MILOS FORMAN
A wry generation-gap comedy about a 15-year-old girl who drops out to the East Village in New York. "Taking Off" probably received more rave reviews than any other film of 1971, and includes one of the best comedy sequences in years. Starring BUCK HENRY, LYNN CARLIN, GEORGIA ENGEL and IKE AND TINA TURNER!

ALEX IN WONDERLAND
DONALD SUTHERLAND as the bewildered Alex trips through the modern wonderland of Hollywood. This highly kinetic film brings the classic "Everyman" theme to the film colony circa 1969, adds a liberal dose of psychedelic, and produces a more than slight disorientation in the audience.
