

...et al Committee seeks input

Lane County commissioners are looking for an individual to serve on the Metropolitan Area Plan Advisory Committee (MAPAC).

Composed of representatives of Eugene, Springfield and Lane County, the committee seeks to achieve a balanced representation. The commissioners would like to find someone living outside the city limits of Eugene and Springfield but within the area encompassed by the 1990 General Plan.

MAPAC members advise the county and cities in annually reviewing the 1990 General Plan addressing such areas as open space, recreation, sewers, water and air quality and other regional plans affecting natural resources such as transportation, housing and economic development.

Individuals interested in serving on MAPAC should contact Robin Paolillo, Board of Commissioners Office, Lane County Courthouse, Eugene, 97401 (phone 687-4203) for a committee membership application form. Deadline for applying is May 19.

Workshop to help elderly grow

An experimental program based on the belief that older people can grow and change as much as younger people will be the topic of the University Gerontology Association's spring workshop.

The all day public workshop May 22 will explore the creation, techniques and effectiveness of the Senior Actualization and Growth Experience (SAGE) project.

SAGE is a two-year-old project aimed at helping people age 65 and older experience aging as something other than deterioration.

Relaxation training, Hatha (Yoga, body-mind awareness exercises), massage, meditation and art experiences are some techniques used by SAGE in nursing homes, community centers, hospitals, universities, and private homes in many cities.

Demonstrations of these techniques and discussions of how SAGE operates will be lead by Ken Dytchwald, co-director of SAGE in Berkeley, California.

Dytchwald will conduct the workshop using various audio-visual aids including a documentary film entitled "The SAGE Project—A Coming of Age."

Preregistration before May 14 is required. Persons may register by calling the Gerontology Association at 686-5131 or Patti Phelps at 342-8388.

The workshop is free for senior citizens and students, $5 for others. It will be held at Gerlinger Lounge from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

AIM event slates Banks

The Redner, Loudhawk, KaMook, Banks Offense-Defense Committee is sponsoring a "Day in Solidarity" with the American Indian Movement (AIM) defendants and leaders on Monday.

Scheduled activities include a benefit breakfast at the Homefried Truckstop from 8 to 11 a.m. and Dennis Banks speaking at the Lane Community College Forum Building at noon with films to follow.

In addition, a women's potluck and discussion is planned with Ellen Movescamp, AIM activist at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 13th and Pearl streets. Native American struggles is the concern of a 7:30 p.m. meeting at the church with Banks, Movescamp, one of A relieved Kathleen Hawkins called the long, often emotional ordeal a "blatant violation of my rights. It was a witch hunt — it failed. It's sad it went on at all." She says she was subjected to constant harassment, hearings, threats and insults as a result of her stand against CIA advertising.

Her house was broken into, files on the American Indian Movement and former PSU professor Frank Giese stolen and the rest the AIM lawyers and a native Brazilian speaking on South American Indians.

The public is welcome. For more information call 485-1755.

Errors sneak into Emerald

Unfortunately, there were two errors in Thursday's Emerald. The story dealing with the ASUO election returns incorrectly reported the percentage increase over last year. The total number of voters this year was 16 per cent of those eligible, which is over a 100 per cent increase from last year.

The second error appeared in the Surface and Symbol calendar, where the admission price to Sunday's spring concert presented by the Women's Choral Society was incorrect. Admission is $2 for general public, $1 for strewn about her house. Valuables in the house were left untouched.

She said the same night of the break-in, a source which had provided information on former board member Pat Bennett was threatened with death. (Bennett later resigned, charging Hawkins with running a campaign against him, returned to the board and resigned again.)

Hawkins said it got to the point that she sat at home three or four senior citizens and free for children under 12.

The Emerald regrets the errors.

Farmworkers set Gallo picket

As part of National Farmworkers Week, the Eugene Friends of the Farmworkers are sponsoring a mass picket today at the Eugene Gallo distributors, M.H. Burris Co., W. 6th and Garfield St., from 4 to 6 p.m.

"We are picketing the Gallo distributors in an effort to contest Gallo's recent media campaign in this area. Gallo has been advertising Carlo Rossi wines in the Emerald and on KZEL and KBDF radio. Carlo Rossi is just another name for Gallo scab wine," says Kurt Wilcox, a member of the pro-farmworker organization.

nights "waiting" for someone to come after her. She was forced to move.

She has charged that the CIA was behind the pressure generated against her. In a letter dated Oct. 17, Special Representative Thomas Culhane of the CIA Portland office asked PSU President Joseph Blumel for "an early reply to our letter of Oct. 6, 1975 to the Vanguard." Hawkins calls that "pressure."

MEETINGS

Petitioners to put the name of independent candidate Tomie Nathan on the ballot will meet at the Nathan Campaign Headquarters, 385 E. 11th Street at noon on Saturday. Volunteers and interested persons may contact Doug Johnson, 344-8922, for more information.

The State Board of the University Mothers Club will have a meeting Saturday at 10 a.m. in the EMU. All mothers and visiting mothers are invited.

The Sri Chinmoy Center will present a program tonight at 7 at the Amazon Community Center, 2700 Hilyard St. Featured is the musical group Saltva, a poetry reading, and the movie "Awakening," a documentary film about meditation.

All persons, especially those in student housing, who are interested in keeping down rent costs and increasing the quality of their living conditions, are invited to the Amazon Cooperative Tenants (ACT) potluck at 6 p.m. Sunday at the Amazon Housing Community Center, 2316-2 Patterson St. A cooperative consultant from Portland has been invited to speak.

MISCELLANEOUS

MECHA and Eugene Friends of the UFWA will present the Academy Award nominee for best documentary film, "Fighting for Our Lives," on Saturday at 4 p.m. in 101 EMU. There is no charge for admission.

At midnight tonight tune in to KWAX 91.1 FM for "Spirit of 78s" presenting music and comedy on 78 rpm records, spanning the first sixty years of this century. Featured artists include Bing Crosby, Elvis, Caruso, Ink Spots, Nat King Cole and Spike Jones.

Saturday has been designated as "Fire Service Recognition Day" by Gov. Bob Straub.

In observance of this day, the Eugene Fire Department will display the city's new aerial ladder truck at the Eugene Mall from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and at Valley River Center from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. In addition, all Eugene fire stations will have open house from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

"University Sunday" will be the theme for the Sunday morning service at the First Congregational Church at 10. Pres. William Boyd of the University will be the main speaker. Following the morning worship service there will be a question and answer period in Fellowship Hall.

Attention all tennis players: You have exactly one week left to enter WRA's spring tennis tournament. Play singles or get together with a male or female friend and play doubles. Be ready to play Saturday morning at 9. For more information call x3389 or come down to 171 Gerlinger Annex.

The University women's tennis team is hosting the Northwest College Women's Sports Association Southern Area Tennis Tournament today and Saturday. Tennis balls will only be used for one match and will then be available for sale at the tournament desk. All students and faculty are urged to watch the tournament and check out the sale — these balls will still be in very good condition and the price is right!
