THE MOUSE THAT ROARED

Peter Sellers plays three different roles in one of his best films. The Tiny Grand Duchy of Fenwick declares war on the U.S., in the hopes of getting massive economic aid after losing the war. The result is an uproarious film which can be appreciated either as pure comedy or political satire.

OSSESSIONE

Based on the James Cain novel THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE, Luchino Visconti's OSSESSIONE is a courageous work of startling realism and proletarian sympathies. Heightened by extreme close-ups and high crane shots, OSSESSIONE suggests guilt and depravity of the larger social order. A masterpiece of characterization, narration and controlled atmosphere.

POOR, DEAR JOE...
Theah was once a young man from the east Who when tickin', could prove quite a beast. But along came a lass who returned all his sass Whilst at him she made eyes and a pass.

Now this tale which began in the back of a van Is replete with times happy and gay.
So my wish is for moah of the same (as of yoah) And a riproaring Irish Boithday!
