

oregon daily emerald

An Independent Newspaper

Volume 77, No. 168

Eugene, Oregon 97403

Monday, June 7, 1976

Term's end alters facility service hours

Even though you may have thought it would never end, spring term finally winds into another finals week — and into a summer of vacation for some, school for others.

If you're wracked with finals and studying is impossible when your roommate has Led Zeppelin on at volume seven, the library will be open normal hours (8 a.m. to 11 p.m.) today through Thursday, and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday. The reserve book room hours are 8 a.m. to midnight today through Thursday and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday. The library will be closed for the weekend except Saturday when the circulation desk will stay open for those returning books only. The following week the library will maintain 8 a.m.-5 p.m. hours through Friday and will be closed the weekend before summer registration.

The EMU will keep regular hours finals week (7:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.) and will be open Saturday from 7:30 a.m. and will close at the night manager's discretion. The recreation center will be closed Saturday and Sunday. The Skylight and Faculty Center are closed until fall term. Sunday, the building (and the soda bar) will be open at noon and close at 5 p.m.; the deli will be closed. Beginning June 14 the building will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., the cafe is open from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and the soda bar and deli are closed. The EMU will be closed June 19 and 20 and will be closed during the weekends for the rest of the summer.

(Continued on Page 2)

today

The gut

Steve Dodge takes a look at the mania in Eugene known as "cruising the gut." Cruise to page 7.

Changes

Jan Oliver takes over for Jim Bernau as the ASUO president. For a wrap-up on the old and preview of the new, see page 10.

Records

A handful of records fell in the Prefontaine Classic track meet over the weekend. See sports, page 13.

Photo by Kerie Steinhauer

Farewell flotilla

It may be another week before University students can kick back and relax like these feathered Millrace mascots. But vacation time lies just the other side of a few finals. For those leaving the University for good Sunday, we offer a collection of the year's past events, recorded on film on page 8. They are just a few, mind you, but hopefully provide a small taste of what happened on campus since September.