THE POINT

THE POINT is an enchanting animated-fantasy. A boy named Oblio is banished from a kingdom where everything has a point except Oblio's head. Oblio heads for the Pointless Forest, where he encounters all sorts of fantastic experiences and bizarre characters, learning along the way that even unpointed folks have their own point in life. The award-winning soundtrack is by Harry Nilsson.

SUNDAY, JUNE 27
AND THEN THERE WERE NONE

This great classic film is based on one of Agatha Christie's most baffling mysteries. An oddly-assorted group of individuals are mysteriously brought together by a man none of them know. As in the "Ten Little Indians" jingle, the guests are disposed of one by one, until the story reaches one of the most surprising climaxes ever filmed. Directed by Rene Clair. Starring Barry Fitzgerald and Walter Huston.
