Quick dips cool summer heat

As the summer days heat up and the mighty tensions of summer school strain the soul, a quick dip in a nearby pool or lake should cool any fool. To satisfy that need, the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department opens four pools for the summer season today with the University's pools also open for summer.

On campus, Gerlinger pool is open 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and 4 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Swimming caps are required. Leighton pool is open from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday, 7 to 9 p.m. Monday and Wednesday, and 1 to 4:30 p.m. Sundays. The two latter sessions have a 25 cent admission charge, and caps are not required.

Swim classes are offered as service activity courses for beginners and intermediates at 8:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The intermediate swim class is at 9:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday, while swim conditioning meets at 10:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday.

Two city pools are close to campus: the Amazon Pool (outdoors) at 2610 Hilyard St., and the indoor Jefferson Memorial pool at 16th and Jefferson streets. Adult swimming (18 and over) is available at Amazon from noon to 8:50 p.m. daily except from 5 to 6 p.m. on weekends. From June 21 to July 4, and from Aug. 16 to Sept. 5, closing time will be 7:50 p.m.

Jefferson Memorial is open for adult swimming from noon to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. weekdays, and from 1 to 8:30 p.m. weekends. From 5 to 6:30 p.m. weekdays is lap swimming only.

Admission to city pools is 50 cents daily, or a 3-month pass costs $9 for city residents, and $13.50 for non-residents.

Adult lessons are available by contacting the pool lifeguards. Additional information on lessons can be attained by contacting the pools.

No Oregon summer is really complete without a dip in one of the numerous natural swimming holes in the area. Aside from slow flow areas along the Willamette and McKenzie Rivers and their tributaries, areas such as Triangle Lake, Fern Ridge and Cougar Reservoirs, and Big or Little Fall Creek are great natural pools.

River swimming should be done with caution, however, as many people are killed annually in the Willamette and McKenzie rivers.

Natural hot springs are also in the area, such as near Cougar Reservoir, Oakridge, or along the McKenzie. Check your nearest Oregon resident for exact location.
