...et al— Regular hours once again for both libraries

For all students who can't wait to start studying again, the University's libraries resume regular fall term operating hours today. The General Library and Science Library will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 12 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday.

The Reserve Book Room will operate from 8 a.m. to midnight Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to midnight Sunday.

Changes in the regular schedule, when necessary, will be posted on the doors of the library.

Music school offers classes to youngsters

Again this fall, the University's music school will offer afternoon music classes for elementary school age youngsters in the Eugene-Springfield area. Two eight-week classes will be offered. One class will meet on Tuesdays; the other on Thursdays. Both will be held from 3:45 to 4:45 p.m. Enrollment is $3.50 per child. Registrations begin today and will continue through Oct. 14. First classes will be held Oct. 12 and Oct. 14.

Students will receive individual and group instruction in various musical media. Teachers will be undergraduate students. A certified music teacher will provide supervision and guidance.

Further information available from the music school office, x37511. The office is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

Deadline nears for overseas Fulbright grants

The deadline for Fulbright grant applications is October 18 for graduating seniors and graduate students who are eligible to apply for the Fulbright-sponsored study abroad for 1977-78.

Applications and information about the program are available through Tom Mills, director of international Student Services, Room 172, Oregon Hall.

Errors find way into Emerald

Starting off on the right foot, the Emerald's Fall Orientation Issue contained two errors. The White Bird Sociomedical Aid Station at 341 E. 12th Ave. offers a low cost clinic with no evening service. The clinics begin at 5 p.m. Monday, and at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Appointments should be made one hour before the clinics begin. White Bird has a pregnancy counselor, so not all pregnancies are referred to Planned Parenthood.

Also in that issue, the University Democrats were omitted from the list of local political organizations.

The University Democrats are an independent branch of the Lane County Democratic Party. They will be meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the EMU to decide whether to endorse independent candidate Jerry Rust for county commissioner and to determine endorsements for non-partisan races.

The Young Democrats, mentioned in the Emerald article are not longer in existence.

MEETINGS

Returning OSPPRG members from last year are invited to attend the first local OSPPRG based meeting of the new school year to plan upcoming projects. The meeting is Tuesday at 8 p.m. Contact OSPPRG local office in EMU or call 686-4073 for more details.

State Rep. David Proseny will hold an open forum for local members of the University community to discuss student politics, university-related issues and the next state legislature. The forum will be held Wed. Sept. 28 at 12:30 p.m. in the EMU room to be posted.

Auditions for the Modern Dance Repertory will be held today at 7 p.m. and Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in Room 353/Geringer Annex.

Auditions for the Jester Folk Ensemble, a folk dance company sponsored by the ASUC and the dance department will be held today at 4:30 p.m. in Geringer Gym.

Ballet Repertory Auditions will be held today at 4:30 p.m. in Room 354, Geringer Annex.

The Eugene-Springfield chapter of National Association of Accountants is opening its fall season with a program of mini-courses and guest speakers of prime interest for those people interested in the business field. The meetings will be held this season at the Rodeway Inn on Interstate 5 and Bellvue.

The first meeting is Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. A mini-course on "Operating Budget Concepts" will be held. Conducting the course is Vern Whitaker CPA, budget director for Lane Community College. A social hour will begin at 6 p.m. followed by dinner at 7 p.m. and the evening program at 8 p.m.

Featured speaker is Jewel Lansing, whose topic is "The Role of the Oregon Treasurer."

MISCELLANEOUS

Radio Unmentionable is a free-form radio program which happens every Friday night on KUCB 96.3 FM, beginning at midnight. The show was developed to allow free expression over the airwaves. The station is interested in expressing any ideas that can be communicated in an audio way. Contact producer Andy Rosenthal at 747-4930, x252, for more information.

The National Fellowship Fund, with the support of the Ford Foundation, is offering a limited number of graduate fellowships for 1977-78 to black Americans intending to pursue a career in higher education. To be considered for fellowships, applicants must be citizens of the United States, enrolled in or planning to enter an accredited U.S. graduate school offering the doctoral degree in their field of study, currently engaged in or planning to enter a career in higher education and must have completed the equivalent of one academic year of full-time graduate study.

For more information about the awards and application forms, write to Graduate Fellowships for Black Americans, National Fellowship Fund, Suite 484, 795 Peachtree St., N.E., Atlanta, Ga. 30308.
