Science library hours announced

The new regular schedule of the Science Library has been announced by Donald Smith, assistant university librarian.

Effective today, the schedule will be: Monday through Thursday 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, 2 to 10 p.m.

Frohnmayr to hold forum today

Student-related issues and the next session of the Oregon State Legislature will be the topics of discussion in a forum sponsored by State Rep. David Frohnmayr today.

Frohnmayr, a law professor and special assistant to University Pres. William Boyd, holds the District 40 state representative seat and will be seeking re-election this year.

Frohnmayr stresses the importance of student participation in government.

The forum will also address other issues and topics. It will be open to all members of the University community and will be held at 12:30 in the EMU, room to be posted.

'Law for laymen' offered this term

Problems of personal and public legal rights and the guidelines for utilizing those rights and responsibilities will be the topics of the Law for Laymen series offered fall term.

The classes will meet Tuesday evenings, from 7:30 to 9:30, in Room 129 of the University Law School.

Interested persons may register by calling 686-4231 or by attending the lecture. The registration fee for the remaining nine sessions is $14.

The series is sponsored by the University's Office of Continuing Education and the law school, and the Lane County Bar Association. Instructors of the series are members of the association.

Youth commission positions open

The Eugene City Council is inviting citizens to apply for appointment to the city's newly established youth commission. Applications will be accepted until 5 p.m. Oct. 15.

Applications for appointment are available in the city manager's office, Room 105 of Eugene City Hall, and can be obtained by mail by telephoning 687-5010.

The city council is looking for individuals who have actively demonstrated interest and expertise in the field of youth rights and who are interested in working to eliminate injustices relating to discrimination against youth. While the youth commission will focus primarily on the concerns of people between the ages of 13 and 17 years, persons of all ages are urged to apply.

For more information, call city human rights specialist Betsy Merck at 687-5010.

Portland band to play Eugene Hotel

Portland's funk machine, Pleasure, will return to Eugene Wednesday evening, September 29 at the Eugene Hotel, for two performances, 8 and 11 p.m.

Pleasure's latest Fantasy Records album, Accept No

Substitutes, has entered high positions in all Soul, Jazz, R & B, and Pop charts. Their current single, "Ghetos of the Mind", is receiving much airplay nationwide and is being released in conjunction with their upcoming East Coast tour. On this tour they will share the bill with Tower of Power, the Average White Band, and Johnny Taylor.

Also appearing with Pleasure will be the Schwebke Bros., local Eugene funk/rock band. Doc Schwebke, leader of the band, has returned to Eugene after recording stints with Bonnie Bramlett and Stephen Stills. His composition "Closer to You" is on the latest Stills lp Illegal Stills.

Tickets for this Double-Tee/Gary Fields event are available at the Sun Shop, Everybody's, Chrystalship and the Eugene Hotel. They are $4 in advance and $4.50 at the door. Patrons must be 21 and over. I.D. is required.

Health care forum to be Thursday

A forum discussion of the Medichcek Program and low income health care will be held Thursday night at 7:30 in Harris Hall, 125 E. 8th Ave.

The forum is sponsored by the Lane County Medichcek Coalition. A panel of six Lane County representatives of health, welfare and legislative fields will discuss the Medichcek program of preventive medicine for low income children between the ages of zero and six.

The Medichcek program provides early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services for a variety of medical problems. Every child who is covered by an Oregon State Welfare Medical card is eligible for the services.
