...et al— Track stars lead nuclear safeguards jog

Track stars Dick Fosbury, Bob Gray and John Rodetich will be leading this weekend's Jog-for-Nine fund raiser for Oregonians for Nuclear Safeguards (OFNS).

The Jog-for-Nine will begin with a 99-mile jog by Gray, a member of the Oregon Track Club. The finish line for Gray's run will be the starting line at 1:30 p.m. Sunday for the other joggers. The jog will be nine kilometers, with joggers required to have sponsors who are willing to support them for every kilometer they run.

In addition to a good workout, mingling sweat with track stars, joggers can also win prizes. Jogging entry sponsor sheets are available in the Survival Center (686-4380) or the OFNS office, 74 E. 18th Ave., 484-1270.

MEETINGS

There will be an Alpha Kappa Psi meeting at 7 tonight in the EMU, room to be posted.

Eugene Gay People's Alliance will meet at 8 tonight at 1236 Kincaid St. The business meeting will be followed by informal socializing. For more information, call 686-3360.

The highly acclaimed film, "Chalk Talk," will be shown free to the public at 7:30 p.m. today in the First Christian Church, 12th and Oak Streets.

The movie, which provides general information about alcohol and alcoholism, was made by the U.S. Navy as a training film and proved so successful they released it to the general public.

This showing is part of the community alcohol education series which is coordinated by the Lane County Council on Alcoholism. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

The Friendship with the Elderly program is in great need of volunteers to work with and help the elderly in the Eugene area. One to five CSPA credits are available. Placements include visitation of lonely elderly in nursing homes and private homes, recreational work, therapy, group work, work with special groups, work at elderly nutritional sites and community senior advocacy. Students can register at the ESCAPE table in the EMU lobby. For further information call 686-3451.

Greg Lyman of the Survival Center encourages joggers to pick up sponsor sheets as soon as possible. He says the pro-safeguards groups are behind anti-safeguards organizations in available funds.

Group meets

The time of the organizational meeting for the Intercollegiate Studies Institute group was omitted from Monday's story. The meeting will be today at 3:30 p.m. in 412 PLC.

Land-use heads candidates fair

Ballot Measure No. 10, which seeks to repeal Oregon's state land-use laws and abolish the Land Conservation and Development Commission, will be the topic of debate at the biennial Lane County Candidates Fair tonight starting at 9:30 at the auditorium building at the Lane

County Fairgrounds, 13th Avenue and Lincoln Street.

Bill Young, former mayor of Beaverton and current director of the State Inter-governmental Relations Division, will debate Cliff Everett, leader of the drive to put the repeal measure on the ballot.

The Lane County Candidates Fair is an annual event co-sponsored by the Central Lane League of Women Voters and the Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Whipple speaks at Demo forum

Blaine Whipple, Democratic candidate for secretary of state will be the guest at today's Brown Bag Forum, sponsored by the University Democrats.

Whipple is opposed in the race by Republican Norma Paulus. The meeting will be at 12:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

ther information call 686-3451.

Derry Malsch, assistant professor of English, will speak on "The Representation of Morphological Relations in the Lexicon," at 3:30 p.m. today in 159 Straub.

The Sierra Club is sponsoring a brown bag lunch and political forum at 12:15 p.m. today in the EMU, room to be posted. Nell Murray and Gus Keller, who are both running for mayor, will be present. Each candidate will speak for 10 minutes on various environmental issues and then will be open to questions. Everyone is welcome; no admission charge.

The Outdoor Program is organizing a series of discussions about basic mountaineering medicine. The first session is at 8 tonight. Come with your questions to the EMU, room to be posted.

All those interested in developing an environmental studies curriculum (leading to a degree) at the University should meet at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 23, EMU (Outdoor Program). For further information, call the Survival Center, ext. 4356, or the Outdoor Program, ext. 4365.
