

Legal research classes offered

The People's Law School is offering a Legal Research class today and Thursday at the Central Presbyterian Church, 15th Avenue and Ferry Street, at 7 p.m. The class will explain how to use materials available in a law library. Attendance at the first session is required for those who plan to attend the second.

The People's Law School is entering its fourth year, offering classes in practical knowledge and use of the law. Instructors are law students. The state bar does not permit them to counsel specific cases or problems.

BRINGmobile to collect, recycle

The BRINGmobile will be on campus Thursdays this term to collect recyclable items. The BRINGmobile will be at the intersection of 13th Avenue and University Street.

Psych majors meet

Meetings are scheduled today and Thursday in 146 Straub Hall at 7 p.m. for psychology majors.

Tonight at 7 p.m. preparation for applying to graduate schools in psychology will be discussed. Thursday at 8 p.m. there will be a department orientation explaining the varieties of courses and training programs available.

Begin Recycling in Natural Groups (BRING) has information on recycling glass, cans, aluminum, cardboard and paper. It can be obtained through resource persons, audio tapes and pamphlets.

BRING is a non-profit member of Oregon Recyclers. For more information, call 746-3023 or 343-7668.

Open meeting for WSSU set for today

The Women's Studies Student Union (WSSU) will meet today at 5:30 p.m. in the Center for the Sociological Study of Women at 605 PLC.

The WSSU was formed to provide student input into the Women's Studies Program and discuss issues of concern to women in the academic environment.

The meeting is open to all students interested in the Women's Studies Program.

Outdoor Program

The Outdoor Program is having an introductory slide presentation and discussion. Both new and old students are welcome. The presentation begins tonight in the Bean West Conference Room at 7 and 8:30. The presentation runs for 15 minutes.

Childbirth class offered tonight

The Lane County Community Health and Social Services Department will offer the seventh class in a series of eight childbirth education classes both tonight and Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Classes are located at the Springfield Health Division Office, 221 B St., Springfield.

This week's class will cover post-natal care and family planning. Call 747-0774 for further information.

Library to display EEC records

Official records and documents of the European Economic Community (Common Market) will be displayed in the General library this month.

These are annual financial reports of the Common Market and its members as well as studies of education, medicine, manufacture and agriculture. They assess the standing, progress and inadequacies of the Common Market.

Library hours are 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 2 to 11 p.m. Sunday.

Murals featured in photo exhibit

An exhibit of color photographs of murals from the east Los Angeles area will be on display at the Eugene Public Library through Oct. 30.

Richard Garcia, an Oregon resident, photographed the murals in 1975. The murals were painted by many different artists and have many themes, often connected with the community's ties with Mexican history and culture.

Candidates and Issues: Today

11:20 a.m. — A debate on State Ballot Measure No. 9 (nuclear safeguards) at a Eugene Area Chamber of Commerce forum. Portland biochemist Robert Girding will speak for the measure and Portland attorney Paul Lorenzini will speak against. At the Eugene Hotel. The $3.90 lunch is optional, but if you're planning on eating, lunch reservations should be made by 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Noon — Jim Howard, independent candidate for Congress, will discuss his campaign at a businessman's luncheon. At the King's Table Restaurant, 1360 Mohawk Blvd., Springfield. The $2 lunch is optional.

Noon — Jerry Rust, independent candidate for Lane County Commissioner, will discuss land-use planning at a meeting of the Jane Jefferson Democratic Club in Florence. At the Sand 'n' Sea Restaurant. Lunch is optional.

Noon — Austin Colcord, Democratic candidate for the Oregon House in Dist. 44 (eastern Lane), will discuss his campaign at the third Demo Forum of the week. At the Asia Garden Restaurant (note location change), 44 E. Seventh Ave. Lunch is optional.

Noon — State Rep. David Frohnmayer, R-Eugene, will discuss his campaign for reelection at the first of two GOP Rubicon Society meetings of the week. At the Quarterdeck Restaurant, 2855 Willamette St. The $2.50 lunch is optional.

3:30 p.m. — A debate on the federal "Communications Reform Act of 1976" between Lloyd Hammel Jr. of Pacific Northwest Bell and Ben Sawyer of Sawyer Communications Consultants Inc. At the University Law School, Room 129. No charge.

4 p.m. — Jerry Rust, independent candidate for Lane County commissioner, will discuss his campaign at a community meeting in the Wild Garden School in Greenleaf. No charge.

7 p.m. — Rust will attend a community meeting at the Old School House in Deadwood. No charge.

7 p.m. — A candidates' fair featuring mayoral and city council candidates in Springfield. Co-sponsored by the Springfield Jaycees, Jayceettes and Central Lane League of Women Voters. At Springfield High School. No charge.

briefs

Meetings

The Women's Studies Student Union will meet today at 5:30 p.m. in 605 PLC. We have come together to build a space for women students to share their skills, air their grievances, work and learn together. A new, exciting year is ahead, and we need new input. Please come. We can learn from each other.

Der deutsche Klub wird am Donnerstag um halb acht im Deutschen Haus treffen. Es wird eine Diskussionsveranstaltung früherer Tätigkeiten und Diskussion der Pläne für kommendes Jahr sein.

The University's Rodeo Club's first meeting is Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted. There will be rough and tumble action in the spring and no experience is required. If you have any questions, call Phil Bevans at 726-8749, evenings.

The Baptist Student Union will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. We will again meet at 1340 Mill St., No. 207. Call 344-7443 for more information.

The Eugene Friends of Farmworkers and the UFW Solidarity Committee has planned an organizing meeting tonight at 7:30 in the YWCA Lounge in Gerlinger Hall.

A monthly meeting of the Hawaii Club in the Hamilton-McClain Lounge at 7:30 tonight.

Lectures

The Students International Meditation Society is sponsoring an introductory lecture on the Transcendental Meditation Program today at 12:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted. The benefits of the mental technique will be explored in relationship to the expansion of individual and group consciousness.

Germaine Bres, a leading national scholar and professor of literature at Wake Forest University, will present a lecture on "George Sand, the Fictions of Autobiography" at 4 p.m. today in Gerlinger Lounge.

Bree belongs to many professional societies throughout the world and has taught in colleges across the United States, as well as in Europe, Egypt and Australia. Her lecture is open to the public at no charge.

Miscellaneous

The ESCAPE Seminar for Laurel Hill, Harris, and Edison/Eastside elementary schools is at 147 Clinton Drive. Meeting time is 7:00 Wednesday night. If you need directions call 344-3357.

The University YWCA is offering Assertiveness Training for Women beginning Oct. 21 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. The course will be taught by Sue Bettis and Molly Fox, and will include readings, group discussion, roleplay, and practice with videotape feedback. Tuition is $15 for YWCA members, $20 for non-members. Enrollment is limited to 24. For more information or registration call 686-4439, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. weekdays.

Should you have the right to install your own telephone equipment? Lloyd Hammel, Jr., general attorney for Pacific Northwest Bell, and Ben Sawyer, president of Sawyer Communications Consultants, will debate the "Communications Reform Act of 1976" today in 129 Law at 3:30 p.m. The Act provides for telephone companies to have exclusive control over all telephone equipment. The speakers will discuss the history and scope of the legislation and take questions from the audience. Sponsored by the Student Bar Association.

John Caine, University athletic director, will speak to the University's Mothers Club meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Faculty Club.

Club members are invited to bring "fathers." Parking will be provided in the EMU parking lot. The meeting will be primarily social, but the group will discuss various projects.

A man and a woman standing side by side are walking so that their right feet hit the ground at the same time. The woman takes three steps for each two the man takes. How many steps does the man take before their left feet simultaneously reach the ground?

Come and challenge your capacity for creative problem solving. Students interested in participating should sign up by 5 p.m. Thursday in the Center for Self Development, Room 207 Emerald Hall.

The campus unit of the League of Women Voters is sponsoring a program on ballot measures Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Koinonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St. The league is open to all men and women 18 years or older.

Been away from school for awhile? Take time out for a brown bag lunch at the YWCA Lounge in Gerlinger Thursday. Drop by between noon and 1:30 p.m. to meet other returning and returned students. Sponsored by Lifelong Learning, Orientation and the YWCA.

Slides of past German Club activities (Christmas party, Mardi Gras, camp-outs, hikes and ski trips) will be shown Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Dunn Hall. Anyone is welcome to attend and suggest activities for the rest of the academic year.

"Legal Research" is the subject of a two-evening People's Law School class held tonight from 7 to 9 at the Central Presbyterian Church at 15th Avenue and Ferry Street. Admission is free. No registration is required — open to all.

The Boys of Lough

Don't miss the hottest folk musicians of the British Isles playing their traditional Irish Music.

Thursday Oct. 14
8:00 pm EMU Ballroom
 Tickets: $2.75 U of O Students, $3.50 non students
"pronounced 'Loek'"

ALCOHOLISM:

• A Common Encounter •

E.S.C.A.P.E. announces sponsorship of a special study group Fall Term.

We welcome U of O students, staff and faculty who have lived with alcoholism in their homes to join a (confidential) discussion group this winter.

Our purpose is to understand the effects alcoholism has on family members and the impact of this experience in adult life.

Our long-range goal is to develop a training program for volunteers to work with children in the Eugene-Springfield community who presently confront alcoholism. If you grew up with alcoholism or presently live with this problem, please join us.

Our first organizational meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 13th at 4:00 p.m. The room will be posted in the EMU.

Further information call ESCAPE (686-4351) and ask for Judy Coffey.

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations. The paper is published by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97403.

From its offices on the 3rd floor of the Erb Memorial Union, the Oregon Daily Emerald operates independent of the University.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is a member of Associated Press and College Press Service, and is divided into four co-equal departments:

News/Editorial 686-5511
 Display Advertising/Business 686-3712
 Classified Advertising 686-4343
 Production 686-4381

Editor Greg Wasson
 Managing Editor Wally Benson
 Asst. Managing Editor Martha Bliss
 News Editor Lora Cuykendall
 Editorial Page Editor Jackman Wilson

Graphics Editor Perry Gaskill
 Asst. Graphics Editor Steve Sandstrom
 Sports Editor Jeff Nielson
 Asst. Sports Editor John Henderson
 Entertainment Editors Bob Webb
 Peter Durvey
 Paul Waldschmidt

Wire Editor E.G. White-Swift

Associate Editors:
 Environment Brenda Tabor
 ASUO Lori Peterson
 State System: Student Services Heather McClenaghan
 Community Mike McLain
 State Politics Tom Jackson
 Local Politics Nick Gallo
 Features Jerril Nilson
 Night Editor Production Manager Kate Seigal
 Advertising Manager Carl Bryant
 Classified Advertising Darlene Gore
 Accountant Ted Johnston