D grading scrutinized

The second hearing on the Lamon (D-grade) proposal is scheduled for today at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

The hearings are the first opportunity for students not on the University Senate to voice their opinion on the controversial proposal.

Nod given by Church

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, and Fourth District Congressman Jim Weaver, D-Oregon, will hold a joint press conference at 2 p.m. today in the Emerald Room of the Eugene Hotel. A reception for Church will follow in the Empire Room from 2 to 4 p.m. Tickets are $3 per person and $5 per couple.

Time err corrected

The story in Monday's Emerald on the Adler symposium contained an error. Heinz Ansbacher's address "An Adlerian Study of Marilyn Monroe" will begin at 7 p.m., 150 Geology.

Crime prevention seminar slated

The Senior Crime Prevention Seminar is having its second session in a five-part series today, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Celeste Campbell Senior Center, 155 High St.

The purpose of the seminar is to decrease unrealistic perceptions and fears of crime, inform seniors of specific types of crime to which they are particularly vulnerable and provide seniors with specific ways in which they can reduce their crime risk.

Further information concerning the seminar is available from Jim Bottom, editor of the Phoenix, or Gloria Timmons, community service officer of the Eugene Police Dept.

Childbirth class scheduled tonight

The Lane County Community Health and Social Services Department has a childbirth education class tonight and Thursday night on the subject "What is it like to be a parent?" A film, "The First Two Weeks," will also be shown. Classes for both evenings are at 7:30 p.m. at the Springfield Health Division Office, 221 B St., Springfield. Call 747-0774 for further information.

Slots opening for city government

The city of Eugene is accepting applications for various openings on the city's 30 standing boards, commissions and committees.

Persons interested in filling these positions may add their names to the city's file of applications. The mayor or city council will review this file when vacancies occur on advisory bodies during the coming year.

Application forms, including a list of the city's advisory boards, are available in the city manager's office at Eugene City Hall, 777 Pearl St. To be considered for January appointments, applications should be returned to the manager's office by 5 p.m., Monday, Nov. 15.
