Pole slates lecture

Irena Kostrowicka, head of the economic history department at the Central School of Planning and Statistics in Warsaw, Poland, will be on campus today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Prof. Kostrowicka is in this country for a few months to study problems of economic growth and agricultural development of the United States in the 19th century and to meet people in different universities with similar interests. Kostrowicka will present a lecture at 4 p.m. Tuesday in 106 Condon following coffee, tea and cookies in Room 108. Her topic will be "Economic and social development of East and Central Europe in the 20th century."

Brodsky info session set

Persons interested in learning more about Russian poet Joseph Brodsky, who will visit Eugene starting Friday, may attend an informal lecture and discussion today sponsored by the Slavic Club. Professors Fruim Yurevich and Al Leong will discuss Brodsky and his works. An English translation of Brodsky's Selected Poem is available in the Bookstore.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at 3185 Willamette St. Apt. 11. Transportation from campus will be available, leaving from the Friendly Hall parking lot at 7:15 p.m. For further information, call 686-4001 or 344-1678.
