Germany tutor slot open

German majors graduating by June, 1977 or graduate students in German may apply for a teaching assistantship in a German high school for the 1977-78 academic year.

The award is sponsored by PAD (Padagogischer Austauschdienst) and pays approximately 650 to 800 marks per month ($260-$320). Applications and supporting documents must be received by the German Consulate in Seattle by Dec. 15. Applications and more information may be obtained from the Office of International Student Services, 172 Oregon Hall, 686-3206.

Musical duo to perform

Two women musicians, Naomi Little Bear and Kristen Asten, will perform at Gertrude's Silver Eighth Note Cafe in the basement of the WOW Hall, Eighth and Lincoln Street, Saturday and Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Asten and Little Bear will perform with the Ersa Minor Choir. The women play a variety of music, drawing from American Indian material, political and spiritual songs.

The band has performed around the state and recently appeared at the Cultural Workers Conference in Portland. Admission for both performances is $1.25.

Santa comes to Eugene

A Santa Claus, provided by the Easter Seal School and Treatment Center, will be in the Atrium Building Saturday through Dec. 24 to encourage support for the 1977 Easter Seal Telethon.

During weekdays the Santa Claus will be present from 4 to 6 p.m. On Saturdays he will be on hand from 11 a.m. through 1 p.m. and from 3 through 5 p.m.

OMSI light show opens

The "Heavy Water Light Show," will be presented at Kendall Planetarium this week in Portland.

The show will be playing through Dec. 5 at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI) in the planetarium.

Tickets are $2.75 for the light show.

Library closes on Thursday, reopens Friday

Library operating hours for Thanksgiving vacation have been announced by Donald Smith, assistant University librarian.

The general library will close at 5 p.m. today and remain closed all day Thursday. It will again open its doors Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will resume its regular schedule Saturday.

Chinese drama appears tonight

"The Bright Red Star," a film from the People's Republic of China, will be shown tonight at 7:30 in 123 Science. The film is a feature length color presentation of a revolutionary Chinese ballet and opera. The story concerns a young man in the new China.

The film is sponsored by the Ethiopian Student Union. Admission is $1.

'MacBeth' auditions near

The public is invited to audition for William Shakespeare's "Macbeth," to open Feb. 4 in the University's Horace Robinson Theatre.

Auditions will be held in the Arena Theatre in Villard Hall Monday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Persons trying out for the production, which will be directed by Faber DeChaine, are to prepare a brief audition piece, either a monologue or a dialogue.

The play, one of Shakespeare's most famous tragedies, has a cast of nineteen men and women, plus several extras.

For more information, contact DeChaine, 686-4205, or the theatre business office, 686-4192.

KWAX airs local concerts

Concerts originating from the University's Beall Concert Hall are again being broadcast on KWAX-FM, the University's public radio station.

The concerts, featuring performances by local instrumental and vocal groups, are broadcast at 8 p.m. Tuesdays. KWAX-FM is located at 91.1 on the FM dial.

Future programs will include a Nov. 30 broadcast featuring the University Singers, under the direction of Paul Westlund; a Dec. 7 concert by the two jazz vocal ensembles; and a Dec. 14 performance by the University Sinfonietta, under the direction of Morrette Rider, music school dean.

Holiday crafts go on sale

Exhibits of pottery, woodworking and photography will be among the craft items available during the annual University Crafts Center Christmas Sale in the EMU Dec. 2 and 3.

Area and University craftspersons will display a variety of hand-crafted items during the two-day sale. Entertainment and festive food will add to the holiday mood of the event.

The sale will be held in Room 167 of the EMU and will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on both sale days.
