FRIDAY, JANUARY 14 177 LAWRENCE SPIRITUAL UNION PRESENTS

THE RULING CLASS

This hilarious British film is one of the most outrageous satires ever made. When the Earl of Gurney dies, his son (PETER O'TOOLE) arrives, fresh from a mental institution, to claim his inheritance. O'Toole is dressed as a monk and is thoroughly convinced that he is Jesus Christ. When his scheming relatives try to use him for their own purposes, O'Toole has wacky surprises in store for not just his relatives, but also for the House of Lords and England.

UNIVERSITY FILM SOCIETY AND CULTURAL FORUM

Present the first screen appearances of SPENCER TRACY and HUMPHREY BOGART in John Ford's 1930 film
UP THE RIVER

This film, until recently not available for campus showings, is a delightful gangster comedy with BOGART and TRACY playing a pair of convicts and who "Don't really mind prison... especially since they can break out anytime they like." The story is full of humor, and no one interested in BOGART should miss the scenes where he says... in that tough-guy Bogie voice... those conspicuously untough-guy words "COMING MOTHER."
