

Locals chosen to ECC

Five new members and a new chairer have been appointed to the Oregon Educational Coordinating Commission (OECC), advisory committee.

Girard Davidson, commission chairer, announced the appointment of Mark Cogan, ASUO vice-president for state affairs, and Jacqueline Rogers of Eugene to the committee. Other new members are the Rev. Arthur Dernbach and Ross Miller of Portland, and Bruce Stewart of Salem.

Eugene kindergarten teacher Norma Comrada McFadden will be the new chairer, and Joseph Blumel, Portland State University president will be vice-chairer.

Cogan is an undergraduate student majoring in political science, and is a member of the University Honors College.

Rogers is the elementary representative to the Advisory Committee from the Oregon Education Association.

Miller is chairer of the Board of Multnomah Intermediate Education District as well as executive director of the Parry Center for Children in Portland. He is the representative on the Advisory Committee for the Oregon Education Association.

The Rev. Arthur Dernbach is president of the Oregon Federation of Independent Schools, and is also superintendent of Catholic schools in Western Oregon.

Bruce Stewart is the Dean of Students at North Salem High School in Salem and is also a member of the Linfield College Board of Trustees. He represents secondary administrators on the committee from the Confederation of Oregon School Administrators.

The 24-member advisory committee plans to meet on the second Friday of each month through June, 1977.

Mission to recycle phone books, build men's home

By JOHN MITCHELL
Of the Emerald

If you find you have an extra telephone book, it's because Pacific Northwest Bell is delivering new directories to local customers this week. But don't throw the old book away — the Eugene Mission wants to recycle it.

In a community-wide effort endorsed by the Dept. of Environmental Quality and Pacific Northwest Bell, the mission is collecting the old directories for sale to a paper recycler. Profits from the drive will be used to support a temporary home for men at the mission, located at 1542 W. First Ave.

A special insert is included with each new directory explaining how customers can participate in the recycling program.

"Participants are asked to drop their old books at any one of more than 500 collection sites throughout communities in Lane County," says Ron Metcalf, assistant director at Eugene Mission. "Drop boxes are located at most major intersections and shopping centers in the Eugene-Springfield area."

For the past few years, the recycling market for used phone books has been too low for a profit.

"The market has been poor in recent years primarily because recyclers wouldn't accept phone books in large quantities," says Metcalf. "The reason was that the staples and glue from the phone books caused problems in the re-processing machines."

But this year the market has improved enough for the mission to extend its newspaper collection efforts to include phone books, which are being recycled into a wide variety of products.

Arrangements can be made with the Eugene Mission for free

pick up when 25 or more phone books are accumulated at one location by calling 344-3251.

...et al Parking fees remain high

One of Wednesday's stories on the trials of University parking was in error — sort of. The reduced-rate parking permits, which allow students to park in the south portion of the lot on 17th Avenue and Moss Street for $9 a year (or an average of $3 a term), do exist.

However, the permits are not now available as the story suggested. For the first time in recent memory all the reduced-rate permits were sold at the beginning of the school year and the chance to buy the permits will not roll around again until next fall term, according to Dick Tanner of Campus Security.

Parking permits are still available for the regular price of $7.50 per term or $12 for a permit good through Oct. 1.

Dribble benefits Phi Psi

Members of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity at the University of Oregon and Oregon State University will be holding a "Phi Psi Dribble" Saturday to earn money for the American Red Cross Disaster-Relief Fund.

Red Cross volunteers will accompany Phi Kappa Psi members as they dribble three basketballs from Eugene to Corvallis. The dribbling will start at 8 a.m. from Mac Court and follow Highway 99 to Corvallis, with a scheduled arrival time of 3 to 4 p.m. Benton and Lane County Chapters of the American Red Cross will collect contributions along the way.

Burns night honors poet

The second annual Burns Night Celebration sponsored by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department's Scottish Society is being held from 4 to 8:30 p.m. Sunday in the Laurelwood Recreation Building, 2700 Columbia St.

Burns night is a traditional gathering of Scottish people to commemorate the birth of Scotland's most noted poet. Everyone with an interest in Scottish food, traditions, dancing music and poetry is invited to the party.

The evening is free; however, donations of cookies will be accepted. Refreshments will be served. For more information phone Vivienne Friendly at 687-5353.

briefs

MEETINGS

OSPIRG meets today at 4:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted. The meeting is open to anyone interested.

The Baptist Student Union will have a skating party Saturday. The group will meet first at 1930 Oryx, Apt. 6, at 7 p.m. For more information, call 344-7443.

LECTURES

Labelle Prussin of the architecture department will speak on "Women and Architecture in the African Vernacular Tradition," at 4:30 p.m. today in Room 177, Lawrence.

Hans Mark, director of the NASA-Ames Research Center in Moffett Field, Cal., will speak on "The Exploration of Mars," at 3:30 p.m. today in Room 150, Geology. His lecture will include some of the results obtained in the recent mission to land spacecraft on Mars. Discussion will also include some tentative plans for the next step in the exploration of Mars. The entire topic will be treated in historical perspective. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Richard Gale, University associate professor of sociology, will speak on "The Uses of Sociology and Natural Resource Planning."

Seeing the Forest Service through the Trees" from 3:30 to 5 p.m. today in Room 72, PLC. Gale, a consultant to the U.S. Forest Service on the impact of the Service's decisions on the economy and social indicators involved with a specific decision, will lecture as part of the sociology department's colloquium series.

MISCELLANEOUS

MEChA and the 3-D Cultural Center are sponsoring an afternoon party for children ages 5 to 12 Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Room 167, EMU. There will be Mexican songs, dancing and candy-filled pinatas. Interested persons are invited to attend, free of charge.

Openings are still available in the Willamalane Ski Touring class. Participation in the class offers six consecutive Thursdays of intensive practical instruction for the intermediate ski tourist. The class will emphasize aspects of ski touring techniques and aspects of winter survival requisite for the responsible ski tourist.

The course will be taught by Jim Blanchard, a qualified outdoors and ski instructor. The six days of small group instruction and touring will cost $45, including transportation. Participants must provide their own equipment.

The first of the six all-day trips will be Jan. 27. Any interested skier is encouraged to call

Blanchard at 342-8076 or leave a message for Neil at 343-3055.

CAMPUS INTERVIEWS

Orientation sessions explaining the services available to job seekers are held every Thursday at 3:30 p.m. at 246 Susan Campbell Hall. Free workshops in resume-writing, job interviewing and job search are also offered. Interview sign-up sheets for the following organization will be posted today at 8:15 a.m.

Jan. 28. Norm Thompson Outfitters. Business related majors preferred.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to make announcement of meetings, lectures and miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed, triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Include all pertinent information, especially the date you want it run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered for the briefs column.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

WANT A BOOT THAT'S LIGHTER, WARMER,
PERFORMS BETTER?

SKI SCOTTS!

WE SKI SCOTTS —

The sales staff at Berg's Ski Shops skis with Scott ski boots (We've used them from Sun Valley to Mt. McKinley). We will gladly help you with answers to your questions, helpful hints, and a knowledgeable, comfortable, and proper boot fit. Price $195 and $220. Demonstrator boots available. We also have eight models of the famous strapless Scott Ski Poles in stock, including the sleek and beautiful new White Scott pole.

Open Evenings — Our 13th & Lawrence Store
Is Open Evenings Until 9:00, Except Sundays.

Berg's Ski Shops

13th & Lawrence - Two Locations - 11th & Mill
Phone 343-0014 Phone 343-0013

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations. The tabloid is published by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc. at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97403.

From its offices on the 3rd floor of the Erb Memorial Union, the Emerald operates independently of the University.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is a member of Associated Press and College Press Service.

News and Editorial 686-5511
Display Advertising and Business 686-3712
Classified Advertising 686-4343
Production 686-4381

Editor Greg Wasson
Managing Editor Wally Benson
Asst. Managing Editor Martha Bliss
News Editor Lora Cuykendall
Editorial Page Editor Jackman Wilson
Graphics Editor Perry Gaskill
Asst. Graphics Editor Steve Sandstrom

Sports Editor
Asst. Sports Editor
Entertainment Editors

Wire Editor

Associate Editors:
Departments and Schools
Features
Local Politics
State Politics
Community
State System and Student Services
ASUO
Environment

Night Editor

Production Manager
Advertising Manager
Classified Advertising
Accountant

Jen Nielson
John Henderson
Bob Webb
Peter Duryea
Paul Waldschmidt

Kathy Craft
Nick Gallo
Tom Jackson
Mike McLain
Heather McClenaghan
Lori Peterson
Brenda Tabor
E.G. White-Swift

Becky Young

Kate Seigel
Carl Bryant
Darlene Gore
Ted Johnston