Carter urges 'bold dream'

WASHINGTON — Jimmy Carter, an outsider no more, was inaugurated president of the United States on Thursday, urging upon his countrymen fresh faith and new commitment to "the bold and brilliant dream" of America.

The solemn ceremony was done, and the balance of the day was for celebration: the quadrennial parade, and the long night of inaugural balls — or parties, as the Carter folks preferred to call them.

By dusk, Carter was behind his desk in the Oval Office, announcing that he will meet next Tuesday with congressional leaders, and will convene the full Cabinet later in the week.

Less than six hours after the inauguration, the Senate confirmed the appointments of eight Cabinet nominees and two other top administration officials.

Guerrillas shoot American

MEXICO CITY — Communist guerrillas shot an American and a Mexican businessman to death Thursday when the two men tried to halt the distribution of leftist pamphlets, police reported.

The dead American was identified by the U.S. Embassy as Mitchell Andreski, president of the Duralflex Corp. of Hartford, Conn.

Integrated schools face closure

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Roman Catholic schools, defying apartheid laws, have opened their doors to all races, prompting government threats Thursday to close the schools.

Five private Catholic schools in the Johannesburg area, two in Port Elizabeth in Cape Province and two in Windhoek, South-West Africa, admitted about 80 black, Indian or mixed race students.

Food riots leave 45 dead

CAIRO — Egyptian cities quieted down Thursday after two days of bloody rioting over price increases on food and other products. The riots left 45 dead and many injured.

Army paratroopers patrolled districts in the capital, where the government reduced a nighttime curfew by three hours as conditions improved.

Alexandria, 126 miles north of Cairo, and other cities where there were disturbances also were reported calm.

Gandhi relaxes political grip

NEW DELHI, India — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's government restored key democratic rights Thursday after 19 months of stern emergency rule — ordering the release of political prisoners, lifting press censorship and revoking a ban on public rallies.

The government said the decisions were taken to speed the revival of political normalcy as the country prepares for parliamentary elections in March.

Oil leases granted in Lane

PORTLAND — Thirty-five oil and gas leases covering 59,000 acres in Douglas and Lane counties will be issued to Mobil Oil Corp. of Los Angeles by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM).

The Portland office of the federal agency reported that an environmental analysis record concluded that a formal environmental statement on the leases was unnecessary.
