Puppetry workshops set

Teachers and children will have the opportunity to learn about puppetry at two workshops being taught by Carol Wade, local puppeteer and teacher.

The teachers' workshop will take place on Saturday Feb. 12, from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at Edison Elementary School, 1328 E. 22nd Ave. The workshop will focus on using puppets in the classroom as an educational tool. The cost is $3 and pre-registration is necessary.

The workshop for children ages 6 through 12 will be held at Amazon Community Center on March 5 and 12 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. both days. The workshop will focus on making simple puppets and producing a show for family and friends. To register, call the Amazon center by March 2.

For more information on both workshops and registration for the teacher workshop call Carol Wade at 345-2822.

Center needs volunteers

The following are a few of the volunteers needed by Lane County agencies. The list is compiled by the Voluntary Action Center (VAC), 673 W. 10 Ave. in Eugene.

Wheelchair washer: Someone to wash down wheelchairs for crippled children twice a month in the afternoon.

Mimeograph operator: To run mimeographed stencils and collate one half day a week.

Typist: To type lists, address labels and contact cards. Moderately fast typing preferred. Time is flexible.

Reader: Person to read books to nursing home patients on a one-to-one basis.

Boys club leader: To work with a group of ten-year-old boys in the evenings or on Saturdays. To assist the boys in their skill achievements.

Big sister: To be a friend to a ten-year-old Goshen girl. (Springfield)

Library aides: Deliver books to disabled or housebound residents. (Springfield)

For more information on these and other volunteer experiences, Eugene area residents can call VAC at 342-4451. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Springfield residents can call the Springfield Volunteer Center at 747-5399.

Day planned on Ayn Rand

Today is "Ayn Rand Day". Defeated local Libertarian Party congressional candidate Tonie Nathan will observe Ayn Rand Day with a noon address before University students in the EMU. The public is invited to hear a recorded speech by Rand on "Ethics in Education" at 8 p.m. in the Libertarian Reference Center, 385 E. 11th Ave.

Nathan describes Rand as "a consistent opponent of communism, collectivism, altruism and subjectivism." Among those Americans acknowledging Rand's influence upon them are Alan Greenspan and Gerald Ford, Nathan says.

Speakers, song offered by LCC

"Aviation Today," "How to Get Along on the Job" and "Antique Bottle Collecting," are samples of the range of topics available in the Lane Community College 1977 Speakers Service list available upon request from the College/Community Relations office.

Some four dozen staff and Board of Education members have volunteered their services to appear before local groups as speakers or performers. Other speakers' topics include "Personal Defense for Women" and entertainment programs with the 75-voice choir or an accordion player to entertain with polkas or waltzes.

The list is available without charge by writing or calling the College/Community Relations office, Lane Community College, 4000 E. 30th Ave. 97405 or 747-4501, ext. 340.

Forensics team takes 3rd place

The University's forensics team garnered third place in Cross-Examination Debate Association (CEDA) debate as well as speaker awards at the Great Salt Lake Invitational last week.

Rico Maloney and Shaun McCrea placed third at the University of Utah after losing to the University of Wyoming in semi-finals.

Dale Buckley outspoke 59 other debaters to win the third place speaker award. His partner, Clyde Carson, was rated ninth out of 62 competitors in CEDA division.
