...et al Sex therapy available

The University Counseling Center in Susan Campbell Hall is offering a new program for University people with sexual concerns and problems.

Students, staff and faculty are eligible to see graduate practicum students who are trained and supervised by a staff counselor. Both couples and individuals will be seen privately for a wide range of sexual concerns.

This new treatment program is being offered in response to substantial demand in the past for sexual therapy according to the counseling center. There will be no fee. For more information or to sign up call 686-3227.

Courses offer English aid

Several free courses dealing with English as a second language are being offered by Adult Basic Education.

The courses include instruction in writing, which meets from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Monday through Thursday and conversation, which meets from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Thursday. For more information contact Adult Basic Education at 1231 Olive St., 343-7488.

Socialists hold meeting

New American Movement (NAM) will hold a spring orientation meeting today at 3:30 p.m. at 1414 Kincaid St. Members of the Eugene chapter will discuss the strategy and the history of the democratic socialist organization.

The local chapter is sponsoring a weekly radio show and brings speakers and films to the area. Next week Barbara Ehrenreich, noted socialist feminist and author, will appear. NAM was one of the organizing groups for the recent International Women's Day observance.

NAM is a national organization with over 40 chapters. It believes the people should democratically control the factories, utilities and natural resources rather than the small number of corporations which control them today. NAM is working to build a mass movement toward this aim.

For more information call 686-1793 or 343-2320.

Fishing festival set for April

Wednesday's story about the upcoming McKenzie Flyfishers "Fishermans' Festival" contained an incorrect date. The event is scheduled for 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, April 9, at the South Eugene High School cafeteria.

Wanted: Volunteers!

The following are a few of the volunteers needed by Lane County agencies. The list is compiled by the Voluntary Action Center (VAC), 673 West 10th Ave.

- Activity leaders: Pre-school and elementary age children would welcome people willing to share interests in crafts, games, roller skating and cooking.
- Assistant clerk: To help clients and work with receptionist in small, friendly office.
- Childcare helper: To care for children at cooperative center two hours per week while staff is in class.

- Research assistant: Someone to clip and maintain a file of articles appearing in the Oregonian which relate to the agency's program.

- Cooking instructor for adults: Share your specialty with someone else: desserts or gourmet, bread or casserole, — anything goes. Springfield.

- Home gardeners: Two people needed: one to help with house plants; another to teach people how to prepare and plant an outdoor garden.

- Tutors: To help Indonesian student learn English, to assist handicapped students and to work one-to-one with children helping them learn and grow.

For more information on these and other volunteer experiences, Eugene area residents can call VAC at 342-4451. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Springfield residents call the Springfield Volunteer Center at 747-5399.
