

Drop off your recyclables

The BRINGmobile will be on campus at the corner of 13th Avenue and University Street today and every Thursday from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. to pick up recyclable materials.

The BRINGmobile will be at the Grower's Market, Fourth Avenue and Willamette Street from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. BRING will collect glass, reusable containers, aluminum, tin, cardboard and draft paper, white paper and lead or other metals. BRING meetings are open to the public and are held the second Wednesday of every month at 7 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, 15th Avenue and Ferry Street. For more information call 746-3023.

GTFs set quiz session

Graduate Teaching Fellows (GTFs) from the University of Wisconsin will hold a question and answer session today at 3 p.m. in Room 204 Condon. They will answer questions based on their experience with GTF unionization and their knowledge of GTF unionization at other universities.

The session will focus on the University of Oregon GTF collective bargaining election April 27 and 28 where GTFs will decide whether they want the Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation to be their collective bargaining representative or to have no representation at all.

LCC photos on display

Black and white photographs by Steve Schenck, free lance photographer and former photography instructor at Chemeketa Community College, are on display in the Lane Community College Library Mezzanine Gallery.

The display by the recent graduate of Oregon College of Education will remain in the Mezzanine Gallery through May 13.

The photographs are studies in light, tonality and composition — the buildings, walls and words which appear are the artist's personal view of the city and the country rather than social or political statements. The photographs are formal compositions in which symmetry, contrast and juxtaposition are primary elements.

The Mezzanine Gallery is located in the Center Building on the LCC campus. Gallery hours are 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. The Gallery is closed weekends.

OMSI sets survival class

The Oregon Museum of Science and Industry will offer a survival course aimed at teaching persons how to deal with outdoor emergencies and save lives. The course is geared to train instructors who can then carry the survival methods and techniques into their communities.

The survival course will be conducted in Lane County May 17 through 23 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Cost of the course is $58.50. The course is open to the first 22 registrants; participants must be 17 years of age or older.

For more information about the course, contact Lonnie Henderson at the Lane County Sheriff's Office, 687-4160.

ALIRT seeks psychologist

The Associated Lane Interagency Rape Team (ALIRT) will be seeking revenue sharing funds for a part-time psychologist to work with victims of sexual crimes at a public meeting tonight at the City Council Chambers.

ALIRT is seeking about $6,000 of revenue sharing funds or half of the $12,000 required. The present priority list for funding places the ALIRT request below the cutoff line.

Discussion of this particular proposal is scheduled for 10:20 p.m.

African rep to speak today

Mugumo Joyce Kangai, a representative of the Zimbabwe African National Union (ZANU), will be speaking today at 7:30 p.m. in 110 Fenton Hall.

ZANU is the main liberation organization fighting the Smith regime in Rhodesia (Zimbabwe). Kangai will speak about the liberation struggle going on in her country, about what Pres. Jimmy Carter and U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young are doing in southern Africa and about how the American people can support the struggles of the peoples of southern Africa.

Her appearance, sponsored by the Revolutionary Student Brigade, is to help build for the demonstration this Friday demanding: "U.S. Out of Southern Africa! Victory to the Liberation Forces! Down With Apartheid and White Minority Rule!" That demonstration will begin with a rally on the EMU Terrace at 12:30 p.m. and then march to the downtown Eugene offices of Merrill Lynch Co. and the Federal Building.

Merrill Lynch sells the South African gold coin, the Krugerrand, which is an important source of income for the minority regime.

Audition workshops set

Persons wishing to learn auditions skills will have an opportunity to work with local actors and directors at a free auditions workshop Saturday sponsored by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department's Cultural Arts Program and hosted by the Very Little Theatre, 2350 Hilyard St.

The program, which will last from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., will feature:

- Directors discussing what they look for in auditions
- Actors talking about how they prepare
- Sample auditions by local actors
- Information about local theatre groups and their up-coming auditions

• Opportunities for participants to try preparing and presenting an audition piece

Participants should bring a sack lunch and wear comfortable clothes. Please phone the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department at 687-5310 to indicate interest or receive more information.

Greeks get top positions

Interfraternity Council (IFC) Pres. Jerry Martens was recently elected president of the Western Regional Interfraternity Council (WRIFC), during the annual conference in Reno. Laurie Wood, Kappa Alpha Theta, was also elected first president of the newly formed Western Regional Panhellenic Council organized at the same conference.

The conference drew around 125 members, with approximately 67 men attending and 58 women. Wood says the women formed their own council because "we were only associate members in the men's council," and added "the conference workshops were geared more towards the men." She said, the conference was still beneficial.

Wood has also held the office of vice-president of Oregon's Panhellenic Council.

Martens, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity has served on the IFC as community service director, newsletter editor and administrative assistant.

Both Wood and Martens will coordinate a joint conference for the two organizations next April. They will be responsible for furthering communications among organizations in their regions.

Whitty wins scholar prize

James Whitty has been selected by his brothers in Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity at the University as the Summerfield scholar of the year.

This is an award available annually in each of the 79 chapters of this fraternity to a member who, in the opinion of his fellows, has achieved an excellent record of good scholarship in combination with demonstrated leadership qualities and worthwhile contributions to the University and to his fraternity. Along with this certificate goes a cash award of $100.

briefs

MEETINGS

The Baptist Student Union will meet at 7:30 tonight at 1930 Onyx St. Tonight's topic is "The Single Christian" (part 2). For more information, call 342-6487.

The National Organization for Women will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight at Lincoln Elementary School, 12th Avenue and Jefferson Street. Susan DeLisle from Family Planning will speak.

The Black Student Union will meet at 12:30 p.m. today in the EMU, room to be posted. All members are asked to attend this special meeting.

LECTURES

George Jeddeloh, a graduate student, will speak on "The Colling of Gryphaea — A New Twist to a Sprialling Controversy," at 12:30 p.m. today in Room 307, Volcanology.

Cecilia Klein, a professor at UCLA, will speak on "The Womb of Time: Symbolism of the Mexican Pyramids" at 8 tonight in Room 123, Science.

Martin Kanes, a professor of French and comparative literature at the University of California, Santa Cruz, will speak on "Delacroix, Baudelaire and the Book of the World," at 3:30 p.m. today in Room 238, Gilbert. His lecture is sponsored by the romance languages, comparative literature and art history departments.

MISCELLANEOUS

Friends of the Library will sponsor a listening, "No Man is an Island," an album by Orson Welles, in the lecture room of the Eugene Public Library, 100 13th Ave., at 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The listening is free.

Today is the last day to enter Woman's Recreation Association's (WRA) spring racketball tournament for women. Events will include both singles and doubles competition. The tournament will begin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and entries should be turned in to the WRA office, Room 8, Gerlinger. For more information, call the office, x4121.

Applications for Kwamas, the sophomore honorary, are available through May 6 in Room 164B, Oregon. For more information, contact Judi Stansbury, x5282.

Copies of all ballots for the ASUO spring primary election are on display in the ASUO executive office, Suite 4, EMU. Candidates are asked to check these ballots to insure proper name spelling. The sample ballots will be on display until noon Friday.

A workshop on "Parenting Male Children with a Non-Sexist Perspective" is scheduled for 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday at Mother Kait's, 541 Blair St. Free child care at Wildwood School will be provided. Interested persons are invited to attend. For more information, contact Carol Green, 344-4455.

Applications are now available for the position of 1977-78 OREGON DAILY EMERALD EDITOR

Applicants should have knowledge of newspaper journalism and of the University of Oregon.

Term of office is June 8, 1977 through June 5, 1978. Monthly salary of $393.75 begins May 1, 1977. Editor must be enrolled at least 6 credit hours, 3 of 4 terms while holding office. Position requires work Sunday through Friday and a minimum of 35-40 hours per week.

Applications are available in Oregon Daily Emerald offices and must be returned to Tina Gryc, 300 EMU before 5 p.m. April 22, 1977.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. Women, minorities and the handicapped are encouraged to apply.

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. 97403.

The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is a member of Associated Press and College Press Service.

Emerald subscriptions are $7 per term and $20 per year.

News and Editorial 686-5511
Display Advertising and Business 686-3712
Classified Advertising 686-4343
Production 686-4381

Editor Greg Wasson
Managing Editor Wally Benson
Asst. Managing Editor Martha Bliss
News Editor Lora Cuykendall
Graphics Editor Perry Gaskill
Asst. Graphics Editor Steve Sandstrom
Editorial Page Editor Jackman Wilson

Sports Editor
Asst. Sports Editor
Entertainment Editors

Wire Editor
Associate Editors:
Department and Schools
Features
Local Politics
State Politics

Community
State System and Student Services
ASUO
Environment
Night Editor

Production Manager
Advertising Manager
Classified Advertising
Accountant

Marv Fjordbeck
Kim Spir
Bob Webb
Peter Duryea
Paul Waldschmidt

Tom Wolfe
Nick Gallo
Becky Young
Marv Beth F...
Tom Jackson
Heather McClenaghan
Lori Peterson
Brenda Tabor
E.G. White-Swift
Tom Fluharty

Kate Seigal
Carl Bryant
Darlene Gore
Ted Johnston

Organization of
African Students presents

Africa Day Celebrations

April 24 7 p.m. EMU Ballroom

Speaker, Dinner
&
Cultural Show

Admission:
$2.50 students
$3.00 general

Sponsored by the FSO Tickets: Main desk & at the door.