Monday-Friday 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

(Staffed hours, general reading hours are the same as the main library.)

The library also has several services available to help in specialized research. As a member of the Oregon Library Network and the Center for Research Libraries, the library participates in an interlibrary loan program which allows students to order books from other state and national libraries. The service is available at the Science Library and the first floor of the main library.

The on-line bibliographic searching program allows students (for a small fee) to use over 60 computerized indices in looking for material. In addition, a minorities library program offers special assistance and material to minority students. The program is located in Room 151 of the main library.
