EQUUS
A Play by Peter Shaffer

WINNER OF THE TONY AWARD FOR BEST PLAY

Walter Kerr called Equus "remarkable... the closest I have seen a contemporary play come — it is powerfully close — to reanimating the spirit of mystery that makes the stage a place of breathless discovery."

Sierra Club plans sojourn to wilderness

The local chapter of the Sierra Club, the Many Rivers Group, is planning an extensive study trip into a proposed wilderness area Wednesday through Monday.

This is the first of three study trips into the proposed Diamond Peak Wilderness Study area. The six-day trip of 35 miles with some cross-country travel is for experienced hikers.

The trip will be centered in the area southeast of Windigo Pass. This is essentially a wilderness study trip to gather data. Participants will be expected to provide input to the forest planning team of the Wineama National Forest. Each trip is limited to eight hikers. For more information contact Holly Jones at 342-3551.

Summer lunch offered at club

Lunch will be served to faculty, students, staff and the general public this summer at the Faculty Club at 13th Avenue and University Street.

This is the first time the club has remained open during the summer to serve lunch, according to Faculty Club Pres. Emmett Williams.

Lunch is served 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Bicycle trip info available now

If you would like to take a bicycle trip on the backroads of America, on your own or in an organized group, maybe Bikecentennial can help. The newly opened regional office in the basement of Christie Hall at the University of Portland (phone: 283-4548) offers assistance with any cycle touring plans.

Portland is the 1977 western terminus for all Bikecentennial trips on the TransAmerica Trail.

Weekly film festival set

Starting Thursday and continuing Thursday evenings until August 4, the romance language department is presenting a Mediterranean Film Festival.

The films are open to University students and the general public for $1 per film or $4 for the series. Students in a course connected with the festival are admitted free to the three Italian films.

The following films will be shown: "The Garden of Delights," Thursday; "The Conformists," July 7; "Lacombe, and Lucien," July 14; "Two women," July 21; "Animas Trojano," July 28, and "The Leopard," August 4.

The series is a collection of recent French, Spanish and Italian films. Each film will be shown twice, at 7:30 p.m. and again at 9:30 p.m. at 177 Lawrence Hall, except for "Lacombe, Lucien" and "The Leopard."

The films deal with themes of despair and alienation, the post-war bourgeoisie, historical self-consciousness, the lost political idea. Each film treats a different aspect of social or political corruption.

Tickets can be obtained at the romance language department or at the door before the movie.

Greyhound service alters

Greyhound bus service between Portland, Eugene, Medford and Klamath Falls will be reduced by one nightly run starting Friday.

"The schedules being deleted have low patronage and can be combined with other schedules without apparent inconvenience to the public," said Charles Davis, Oregon public utilities commissioner.

Service on fourteen Lane Transit District routes has also changed slightly for the summer months. New timetables are now being delivered to LTD racks in 110 locations around Lane County.

Bus service to Marcola and the Vida/McKenzie Bridge area has been cut in half. These changes result from transit district board evaluations of route productivity and cost.

Changes in regular LTD service include timepoint adjustments and removal of extra buses on those routes serving school populations. The following routes will have summer schedule changes: #2 Junction City, #11 LCC (A, B, and C), #11 LCC via Harris, #22 "Q" Street, #24 Santa Clara, #30 VRC/Irving, #55 Oakway-Campbell/Bethel, and Sunday and holiday service.

Changes in routes #4 Marcola and #5 Vida/McKenzie Bridge are expected to continue in effect through next year.

Slide show scheduled

A free multi-media slide show of a Himalayan trek will be presented by Bruce Mason, coordinator of the University Outdoor Program, Wednesday, at 7:00 p.m. in 177 Lawrence Hall.

Mason travelled from Nepal's capital (and Eugene's sister city) of Katmandu through humid jungle trails, eventually reaching the Mt. Everest region.

His three-screen panoramas hold views of the snow-covered top of the world wreathed in windblown clouds, illuminated by sunrise and sunset, swathed in mist. Interspersed with Nepal's scenic beauty are closeup studies of the friendly and unique mountain people of Nepal, the Sherpas.

MEETINGS

How Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) can help people with a drinking problem will be the subject of the next community alcohol education program today at Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry St.

A film, "One Day at a Time," will be shown and a panel of AA members will discuss their experiences. The program is designed for the public and coordinated by the Lane Council on Alcoholism. The free programs are each Tuesday evening.

There will be a special meeting of the Oregon State Education Association at noon Thursday in the EMU, room to be posted.

There will be a Chinese language table from 11:30 to 12:30 every Wednesday afternoon during summer session. It will meet in Room 115, EMU. Any student wishing to speak Mandarin Chinese is welcome.

The Campus Zen Fellowship meets Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 to 2:30 in Century Room E of the EMU. Beginners are welcome.

INTERVIEWS

The following school districts will be interviewing in the Career Planning and Placement Center, Room 246, Susan Campbell Hall:
