

OSA seeks defendants

The Office of Student Advocacy's (OSA) new student defender program is now organized and is in need of defendants to represent, according to OSA director Don Chalmers.

The program was established this year after receiving funding through incidental fees. The student defenders are third-year law students who have been certified for practice in misdemeanor cases and the student court. Chalmers said the defenders can't represent students in felony cases.

Low-income students who may need the services of the student defender program are encouraged to contact the OSA office in Room 16 D EMU or at 686-3710.

NAM opens discussion

Members of the democratic socialist organization, the New American Movement (NAM), will discuss and answer questions about NAM's politics and strategies at an orientation Thursday, 3 p.m. at 1414 Kincaid.

The Willamette Valley chapter has been active locally for two years. For more information call 345-5546 or 686-1793.

Out to lunch

The Faculty Club, located on 13th Avenue and University Street, is open for lunch starting today from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Students and faculty members are invited to try the new menu at the Faculty Club. Joan MacDonald is the new food manager, and work-study students have been hired to wait tables.

Records ready

Graduate students may pick up their free transcripts for the 1976-77 academic year at their major department or school. Tuesday's Emerald incorrectly reported that they could pick them up at the Graduate School. Non-classified students (G5) may receive their transcripts at the Graduate School.

Musicians needed now for Candide

The University Theatre announces a call for musicians to perform Leonard Bernstein's Candide. The 1974 New York Drama Critic and Tony award-winning musical comedy is scheduled for Feb. 9-11 & 15-18, 1978, in the Robinson Theatre.

Seeking an orchestra of 15 musicians, Music Director Dale Hearth notes that the score, the new, 1974 version, is challenging and difficult. Players must be proficient in their own individual instruments and in small ensemble playing.

GTF meeting scheduled

Graduate teaching assistants who are members of the Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation (GTFF) are asked to attend a closed meeting for union members only Thursday at 7 p.m. in Condon Hall, Room 204.

The meeting will consider contract proposals developed over the summer that will be negotiated with the University beginning Oct. 3. For information, call 344-0832.

Indian women begin meetings

The American Indian Women's Club of Eugene-Springfield is holding a meeting Thursday at 7 p.m. at 1665 Oak Patch Rd. in the Community Room.

The agenda includes identification of the health needs of the American Indian people in the area and types of services needed. All Indian women who are interested in the health care services of their families are asked to attend these monthly meetings.

Call either Marilyn Woodbridge evenings at 686-0895 or Sharon Shuey at 687-3507 mornings.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-unit margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by noon two days before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

A special breed.

What does it take to be a Marine officer? It takes strength, agility, coordination, endurance, intelligence, moral and physical courage. It takes desire, determination and grit. Above all, it takes the ability to lead other Marines under conditions of extreme stress. In short, it takes a special breed of person. If you have what it takes, we'll bring out the best in you.
